EWING THOMASON OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR GOVERNOR

HUNDREDS GREET WESTERNER
AT OLD HOME IN GAINES-VILLE TUESDAY

Gainesville, Texas, March 2.—Robert Ewing Thomason, of El Paso, Speaker of the House of Representatives, formally opened his campaign for Governor here today. He was reared in this county and always lived here until a few years ago. He was greeted with a large and enthusiastic audience, coming from all parts of this and adjoining counties. There were also many prominent citizens from various sections of the State.

Hon. Jesse Murrell, a prominent farmer, and now for many years a member of the State Legislature, presided. The speaker was introduced by Rev. R. R. Gains, a pioneer Baptist preacher, who had known him since he was a baby.

Among other things Mr. Thomason said:

My appeal is going to be to the forward looking and not the backward looking. My message will not be directed to the mal-content. My hope is not with the disgruntled. I am going to pin my faith to the men and women who believe with me that this is the greatest day in all history. I subscribe to old principles, but I believe in giving them application to fit the times. I am not content to rest my cause upon the deeds of past generations. Modern Democracy is begging for men who will keep government abreast with the progress we have made in business, art and science. This is the dawn of a new day. Nations and States, like individuals, can not stand still. Progress is the watchword of the day and instead of hating the word "Progressive," I love it. I want to make this race on live issues. I am for a constructive and not a destructive program. I prefer co-operation to competition. My hope is that we may map out a truly big program of big things which will result in the happiness, prosperity and contentment of our people. I had hoped until quite recently that some of the issues that had divided us for so many years were settled, but since there are those who would resurrect the dead or revive the dying embers of the past, then I propose to meet the issue squarely. I am not going through this campaign with my flag at half-mast. I am not going to side-step when the challenge has been made.

Prohibition

Shortly after the first division of American soldiers reached France, Pershing said at the grave of Lafayette, "We are here." On the 16th day of January, last the American people said to the liquor traffic, "Prohibition is here." It might be well to add—"It is here to stay." It is now a part of both the State and Federal Constitutions. No amendments to either of those immortal documents has ever been repealed. It ought to be a settled issue, except for enforcement, to which I stand unqualifiedly pledged.

In view, however, of the activities of the National Liquor Association, together with certain influences now at work in Texas, I want every voter within this state to know that I am for Prohibition, local, State and National. As a member of the Legislature, I gave my vote and influence to State-wide prohibition, as well as ratification of the National Amendment. I was joint author with Mr. Bledsoe of Lubbock, of the so-called Zone Bill, which removed liquor from the army camps, and which was the first law to really make Texas dry. Most of the counties already had local option, but that law took liquor from all the large cities, including my own. I felt that if liquor was a bad thing for the soldier boys at Fort Worth or Houston, it was also bad for him in New York, when he was taking the boat to go to France to fight, and, if need be, die—and so I supported National Prohibition.

I was for the political rights of the woman long before the war, but even

POWER COMPANY PETITIONS FOR RATE INCREASE

CITY COUNCIL PROTESTS RAISE IN LIGHT RATE IN LETTER TO COMPANY

The Cameron Water, Power & Light Company, in communication to the City Council of the city of Cameron which was received at the meeting held Tuesday night, gives notice that an additional raise in the light rates of the city will be necessary.

In reply to the communication the City Council has instructed the Secretary to say that the Council does not consider the additional raise advisable and protests further with the claim that rates are higher here than in any other town of this size. The City Council also takes the position that the increase in rates will be unjust.

Announcement of the action of the Council is made by J. C. Joseph, Alderman.

In the reply to the power company the Council sets out that the communication, while dated in February, did not come up for consideration until the meeting Tuesday night, and as the raise in rates was scheduled to take place on March 1, the Council was therefore unable to give the matter due consideration.

It is not known if the city will take any steps to prevent the raise in rates, as action of this nature is not stipulated in the reply which is going forward from the office of the Secretary.

The Council also heard a complaint from a committee of citizens who reside in the eastern portion of the city about the condition of certain streets caused by breaking the soil for dirt to be used in private improvements. The committee alleges the streets are in bad condition now since the recent rains and that stagnant water is permitted to stand.

The Council instructed the City Attorney, S. M. Burns, Jr., to enforce repairs to put the streets in their former good condition so as to facilitate better drainage.

Several other matters of minor importance were taken up and disposed of.

The City Council is composed of John B. McLane, Mayor; H. M. Hefley, George T. Graves, Oxsheer M. Smith, J. D. Dobbins and J. C. Joseph, Aldermen.

RAILEY SURPRISED; WAITS CONFIRMATION

Washington, March 3.—"I would not have any office in the world if I could not carry my home county," said former Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey when informed of the challenge made by R. E. Thomason in his opening campaign speech at Gainesville yesterday.

Senator Bailey refused to say what he will do until he gets positive assurance that Thomason made the Cook County challenge.

"I can't believe that Thomason made any such statement as that unless he is trying to find an easy way to get out," he said. "It is ridiculous, I do not believe it possible."

"Before I reply I want to know positively what he said. He should have communicated with me directly. This is the first I had heard about it. If he made the statement, I shall hear it, very likely, from some of my friends."

"My mind is made up if I find the information is correct. It won't take but an instant for me to make my decision."

MRS. T. W. AYCOCK DEAD

Mrs. T. W. Aycock died this morning at the family home in East Cameron.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment will be made in Minerva cemetery. Rev. Ira F. Key will conduct the services. A more complete account will appear next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilson, of Bryan, formerly of Cameron, are rejoicing over the birth of a fine son.

Spudding In Deep Test At Maysfield Will Usher In New Field of Operation

Woman May Have Had Part in Bank Robbery at Plano

Plano, Tex., March 1.—No important over Sunday developments were disclosed in the search for two bandits who looted the Plano National bank and shot and killed G. W. Rye, a night watchman, here Saturday. Special officers were closeted in the looted bank all day yesterday, while search for the outlaws continued in several north Texas counties.

Investigation is said to have convinced officers that the robbers, in their flight from Plano before day-break Saturday, turned their automobile in a westerly direction after going a few miles south instead of continuing southward toward Dallas, as first believed. It is also understood that certain articles left in the bank leads investigators to believe one of the bandits was a woman garbed in overalls. First estimates of the value of bonds taken proved excessive, the figures later having been placed at approximately $25,000. Complete check of the safe deposit boxes is not completed, however. No money was secured by the robbers.

The body of Rye was ready for shipment today to San Saba for interment.

University Students in Gruelling Battle Following Riots

Austin, Texas, March 4.—At least a dozen students of the University of Texas were more or less injured in a riot tonight participated in between sophomores and freshmen. Rocks, clubs and liquid ammonia thrown from fire extinguishers were the weapons used, the scene of the upheaval being at the Knights of Columbus hall, which had been engaged by the freshmen for their annual reception tonight. Window panes were smashed, furniture broken and other damage done to the hall. The Knights of Columbus Hall is in the center of the city.

While the riot was at its height the police and officials of the University were summoned, but despite their presence and protests made by leading officials of the University the fight continued for half an hour or more. Liquid ammonia, which was thrown by the sophomores, hit many marks, almost blinding the victims. A number of students were put out of commission by the blows on their heads from clubs and rocks. Ambulances were called and a number of the more seriously injured were taken to a hospital. Only two remained there at midnight, the others having recovered. The two at the hospital were suffering from the effects of the ammonia. Their condition was not considered serious, it was reported.

While an ambulance was rushing to the scene of the riot it collided with an automobile occupied by two men. The car was wrecked, but its occupants escaped uninjured.

According to custom, the first year men were attempting to hold possession of the hall and have their prexy lead the grand march. Earlier in the evening the sophomores gathered around the building and stormed and battered their way, capturing several freshmen and loading them into trucks carried them several miles out of the city and there dumped them. Later, the first year men retaliated by making a desperate attempt to regain possession of the hall. It was then that the fight turned into a riot. Freshmen were gassed by liquid ammonia, several windows and door panels were riddled by the assaults numerous cracked heads resulted from the swinging of clubs.

Failing to gain possession of their hall to allow their president to start their dance at the appointed hour, the first year class was given the floor and excitement subsided. Then followed the reception.

PALMER IN RACE FOR PRESIDENCY

ATTORNEY GENERAL WILL SEEK DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION
AT CONVENTION

Atlanta, Ga., March 1.—Attorney General Palmer tonight formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President in a telegram to Hiram L. Gardner, secretary of the Georgia State Democratic Committee.

Referring to the petition filed in his behalf for the Georgia primary, Mr. Palmer declared that "if the Democrats of Georgia see fit to select me as their choice I shall receive the honor with deep appreciation," holding it to be highly important that opportunity be given in the primary "to directly pass upon the record made by the present administration."

The telegram from Mr. Palmer read as follows:

"I understand that my friends have entered my name in the presidential primaries. If the Democrats of the State of Georgia see fit to select me as their choice I shall receive the honor with deep appreciation. I deem it highly important that Democrats of Georgia should pass upon the record made by the present administration. The candidacy of one who supports that record in every phase presents that opportunity."

SITE LEASED FOR FILLING STATION

COMPANY

Plans for the construction of a drive in filling station for the sale of gasoline and oil are completed and R. B. Roaper, representing the Columbian Refining Company of Houston is in Cameron completing the sale of stock which is offered on a profit sharing basis to consuming public.

A five years lease has been secured on the corner property southeast of the Federal building from J. K. Freeman. The deal for this property was closed late last week while Mr. Roaper was in the city.

The drive-in station when completed will cost about $6500. In all the company is planning to spend $10,000 or more in Cameron. The plans call for the construction of a supply depot which cost $2500.

Stock will be offered on a profit-sharing basis to consumers. This will give Cameron her first drive-in filling station and will be a distinct improvement for the vacant property leased for the building.

Machinery On Ground For Development of Field Northeast Of Cameron.

With drilling machinery at the location and a new derrick reared eighty-five feet into the blue of the Texas sky the Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company is ready to spud in on its deep test at Maysfield. The spudding in of this deep test which is going down for a gusher, Milam County adds another field to its already large proven and geologically pronounced territory.

The assembling of this machinery and the early spudding in of this deep well is the most far reaching development in connection with oil activities in the county during the week. People of Cameron and oil operators everywhere are watching the Maysfield development with keen interest and it is freely predicted that with the advent of this new drilling project there will be a general movement to this field of operators from all over Texas and the mid-continent zone.

For more than two weeks constructive development programs have been in the making looking toward the production of oil in marketable quantities from the Tracy field nine miles southeast of Cameron. Contracts have been closed for production, the most important being the deal closed last week between the San Gabriel Oil Company and the Texas Eagle Refining and Producing Company of Fort Worth for the construction of a pipe line with Cameron the terminal and the placing of the shallow wells on pump and drilling in of other wells. This will give Milam county her first production in marketable quantities in the event other wells now drilling fail to come in during the period required to construct the line.

The Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company have placed orders for machinery necessary to put their shallow holdings at Tracy on pump with the view of making pipe line connection or constructing individual lines and loading racks. Announcement of the placing of this order for machinery was made yesterday by W. B. Birchum, secretary of the company with headquarters in Cameron.

The big standard rig for the deep test at Maysfield was received in Cameron late last week and has been moved to the Maysfield location for the deep test. Officials of the company, of which A. F. Shofield of Bartlett, is president, say they are going after a gusher and will dig to the bottom of the sands in that field. Much interest is attached to the drilling at Maysfield not only because it means another theater of activity for the county, but because of the recent showing of shallow oil in a water well drilled in there.

The Keystone rig for development at Tracy will be put on the location this week. It is the plan of the company to bring in an additional number of shallow wells and these with the wells already showing quantities of oil, will be placed on pump.

Leases have jumped skyward during the past two weeks and investors are finding it hard to get in on the ground floor without paying fancy prices. Scouts in the employ of a number of great corporations are on the ground and are picking up acreage where they can find it and watching developments closely.

The locations for the deep test at Maysfield is about one mile southeast of the town. For many years the structure at Maysfield has been rich in oil seepage and this remarkable showing of oil has led oil men of prominence as well as leading geologists to pronounce the field one of the best undeveloped crude theaters in the entire country.

The Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company is going down for a gusher. The deep sands will be tested out. The present plans are for 3500 feet bore but a greater depth will be made in the event the big producing strata is not reached under the specified depth. Company officials make it plain that the effort at Maysfield will

CARRANZA BLUNTLY REFUSES TO ADMIT AMERICAN CITIZEN

HENRY FORRES, WITNESS AT FALL HEARING, IS REFUSED
PASSPORTS

Washington, March 3.—Blunt rejection met the effort of the state department to induce the Mexican government to permit Henry Forres, an American citizen, to re-enter Mexico after testifying before the senate subcommittee on Mexican conditions.

Answering a note presented by George T. Summerlin, charge at the American embassy, Hilario Medina, sub-treasurer of foreign affairs, said that "in view of the antecedents" of Forres, his entry could not be permitted. Medina also charged that Forres had conducted a propaganda against Mexico "among persons attending the sessions" (of the subcommittee).

The American request, according to the unofficial text, laid stress on the fact that American citizens could not refuse to testify before the committee, under the severe penalty.

"In view of these extenuating circumstances," Mr. Summerlin's note added, "and without denying the right of the Mexican government to refuse admittance to undesirable aliens, the department of state believes that in those cases an exception might be made which would not destroy the principles of international law."

"Make Out Specific Case." The Mexican reply dealt only with the specific case of Forres whose home is at Matamoros, Mexico, and who was refused a passport visa by the Mexican consul at Eagle Pass, Texas, when he sought to go home after having testified.

"Permit me to point out to your excellency," the Mexican reply said, "that the said Mr. Forres in testifying before the subcommittee of the United States senate stated that conditions prevailing at present in Mexico were chaotic, exhibiting as evidence the assertion that the president of the republic on the occasion of his visit to Cuatro Ciengas had been escorted by seven thousand soldiers. Furthermore, the said Mr. Forres expressed himself in harsh terms with regard to article 27 of the constitution stating it simply provided for confiscation or robbery. In general his statements were not only derogatory to Mexico and this government, but were also sarcastic. Nevertheless, the said Mr. Forres has not confined himself to his false statements with regard to Mexico, but he has been engaged in an active propaganda against Mexico among the persons attending the sessions, having furthermore offered in a jocular tone to go to the Mexican consulate and advise himself as to whether the visa of his passport would be denied, confident that it would not be."

"In view of the antecedents of Mr. Henry Forres your government is pained to advise your excellency that it cannot permit the entry into Mexico of the gentleman."

Washington, March 3.—Mexico is said to be preparing to demand permission to import arms and munitions of war from the United States. Hilario Medina, sub-secretary of foreign affairs, in a statement which has been reported to the state department has announced that as a result of the retirement of Robert Lansing, as secretary of state, it is probable that the demand will be met.

At the same time there was made public in Mexico City, the text of the most recent correspondence between Mexican Ambassador Bonillas and Secretary Lansing on the matter.

be real search for oil and if as oil men say and geologists claim the big pool is there, it will be brought to the surface.

The company is certain of production at Tracy and will pay its stockholders big dividends on the shallow fields alone with other holdings pure velvet and bidding fair to produce when development has been completed.

The Cameron Water, Power & Light Company, in communication to the City Council of the city of Cameron which was received at the meeting held Tuesday night, gives notice that an additional raise in the light rates of the city will be necessary.

BAILEY SURPRISED; WAITS CONFIRMATION

Washington, March 3.—"I would not have any office in the world if I could not carry my home county," said former Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey when informed of the challenge made by R. E. Thomason in his opening campaign speech at Gainesville yesterday.

Senator Bailey refused to say what he will do until he gets positive assurance that Thomason made the Cook County challenge.

"I can't believe that Thomason made any such statement as that unless he is trying to find an easy way to get out," he said. "It is ridiculous, I do not believe it possible.

"Before I reply I want to know positively what he said. He should have communicated with me directly. This is the first I had heard about it. If he made the statement, I shall hear it, very likely, from some of my friends.

Leases have jumped skyward during the past two weeks and investors are finding it hard to get in on the ground floor without paying fancy prices. Scouts in the employ of a number of great corporations are on the ground and are picking up acreage where they can find it and watching developments closely.

The locations for the deep test at Maysfield is about one mile southeast of the town. For many years the structure at Maysfield has been rich in oil seepage and this remarkable showing of oil has led oil men of prominence as well as leading geologists to pronounce the field one of the best undeveloped crude theaters in the entire country.

The Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company is going down for a gusher. The deep sands will be tested out. The present plans are for 3500 feet bore but a greater depth will be made in the event the big producing strata is not reached under the specified depth. Company officials make it plain that the effort at Maysfield will

PASSPORTS

Washington, March 3.—Blunt rejection met the effort of the state department to induce the Mexican government to permit Henry Forres, an American citizen, to re-enter Mexico after testifying before the senate subcommittee on Mexican conditions.

Answering a note presented by George T. Summerlin, charge at the American embassy, Hilario Medina, sub-treasurer of foreign affairs, said that "in view of the antecedents" of Forres, his entry could not be permitted. Medina also charged that Forres had conducted a propaganda against Mexico "among persons attending the sessions" (of the subcommittee).

The American request, according to the unofficial text, laid stress on the fact that American citizens could not refuse to testify before the committee, under the severe penalty.

"In view of these extenuating circumstances," Mr. Summerlin's note added, "and without denying the right of the Mexican government to refuse admittance to undesirable aliens, the department of state believes that in those cases an exception might be made which would not destroy the principles of international law."

"Make Out Specific Case." The Mexican reply dealt only with the specific case of Forres whose home is at Matamoros, Mexico, and who was refused a passport visa by the Mexican consul at Eagle Pass, Texas, when he sought to go home after having testified.

"Permit me to point out to your excellency," the Mexican reply said, "that the said Mr. Forres in testifying before the subcommittee of the United States senate stated that conditions prevailing at present in Mexico were chaotic, exhibiting as evidence the assertion that the president of the republic on the occasion of his visit to Cuatro Ciengas had been escorted by seven thousand soldiers. Furthermore, the said Mr. Forres expressed himself in harsh terms with regard to article 27 of the constitution stating it simply provided for confiscation or robbery. In general his statements were not only derogatory to Mexico and this government, but were also sarcastic. Nevertheless the said Mr. Forres has not confined himself to his false statements with regard to Mexico, but he has been engaged in an active propaganda against Mexico among the persons attending the sessions, having furthermore offered in a laudatory tone to go to the Mexican consulate and advise himself as to whether the vise of his passport would be denied, confident that it would not be.

"In view of the antecedents of Mr. Henry Forres my government is pained to advise your excellency that it cannot permit the entry into Mexico of the gentleman."

Washington, March 3.—Mexico is said to be preparing to demand permission to import arms and munitions of war from the United States. Hilario Medina, sub-secretary of foreign affairs, in a statement which has been reported to the state department has announced that as a result of the retirement of Robert Lansing, as secretary of state, it is probable that the demand will be met.

At the same time there was made public in Mexico City, the text of the most recent correspondence between Mexican Ambassador Bonillas and Secretary Lansing on the matter.

FORT WORTH MEN BUY HOLDINGS IN ROCKDALE FIELD

ECKHARDT INTERESTS ACQUIRED AND WELLS WILL BE PUT ON PUMP

(Rockdale Reporter.)

P. E. Johnson, of Tulsa, Ok., representing the firm of Johnston, Varnell, Rathbone & Company, with headquarters in Fort Worth, has been in Rockdale this week looking after his company's interest in the Rockdale-Tracy field. This concern recently purchased the Eckhardt interests in the shallow field, formerly known as the Tracy Oil & Gas Company. These interests consist of a 75-acre tract in the heart of the shallow production with six completed shallow wells. Mr. Johnson informs the Reporter that the first work of his company will be to give these wells a thorough test. They will be properly cleaned and cased and pumps installed, the necessary materials for this being already enroute and he hopes to have the work well under way within the next ten days. Further than this Mr. Johnson would not go, but it is rumored that this concern is here for big business and to bear a big hand in the thorough development of the Milam county field. Mr. Johnson is himself a practical oil man. He expects to soon bring his family here for residence, and stated positively that Rockdale would be the base of his company's operations.

There have been little other developments in the local situation during the past week. Several of the organized companies are now figuring with drillers, but no contracts have yet been announced.

M. T. Skinner, of the Avo Oil & Refining Association, has returned from Cleburne, and has been busy with drilling contractors all week.

A new local company to be known as the Texas Petroleum Company was organized during the past week, but a statement of their proposed activities is not yet available. This gives Rockdale seven active organized oil companies.

A representative of the Texas Company was here the first of the week, but had nothing to give out. Many other scouts are in the field at all times.

The Kenilworth Oil Company has set casing at 475 feet and is again drilling. Manager Taylor states that he has been having much trouble with his hole casing, making it necessary to set casing in order to complete the well. This well on this side of the river on the Bauer land, and Mr. Taylor expects to strike the pay at around 650 feet.

E. G. Wardlow, of Fort Worth, vice president and attorney of the Texas Oklahoma Petroleum Products Company, was here Friday, and stated that his company now had a deep well rig in transit from Wichita Falls, and another one bought in Oklahoma which would be shipped here right away. These rigs will be unloaded at Big Lump and the first one to arrive will be set to work on the Guy Cook farm a mile and a half south of Big Lump. This company has between 2,000 and 3,000 acres under lease in that section.

Dr. R. C. Wallis reports drilling under way on his Davidson Creek well, south of Milano, and a splendid showing of oil already had.

The Tanglewood drillers are reported to be down more than 1000 feet and to have had several good showings.

AMERICAN SLAIN IN BORDER FIGHT

BANDITS RAID TOWN 30 MILES FROM BORDER AND SLAY MERCHANT.

Nogales, Ariz., Feb. 28.—Alexander Frazier, American storekeeper and mining engineer, is dead and his brother, J. A. Frazier, is in critical condition as a result of a battle with two Mexican bandits who raided a general store owned by the Frazier brothers at Montana camp, Ruby post office, thirty miles from here and near the Mexican line late yesterday.

Notification of the shooting was received by the sheriff's office here from Armodoville, the outlaws having cut the lines of communication from Montana camp before they fled. Deputies were immediately dispatched to the scene of the attack. Officers are said to be on their way with bloodhounds from Tucson.

Alexander Frazier was well known in this region as a mining engineer having been associated with a number of important enterprises.

WEEKLY FINANCIAL REPORT

During the recent break in foreign exchanges, it was rather freely predicted that American exports would suffer considerably. With the declining exports a reduction in commodity prices seemed inevitable, due to the fact that the supply available for domestic consumption would be greatly increased. The acceptance of this hypothesis was pretty general, but as yet there is nothing to indicate that these fears were justifiable. The foreign trade figures for the month of January show no tendency towards a reduction in our exports the contrary being shown. Our exports for January were very favorably with the record month of the previous year.

Since exports of Europe consist largely of raw materials and feed-stuffs, any material decline as a result of trade conditions is likely to be gradual. Europe is so greatly in need of most of the goods we have for sale that exchange conditions do not have the same influence that would normally be expected. As long as Europe needs our commodities and can obtain them on credit, prices and exchange conditions will apparently have no very marked deterrent influence.

The psychology of the situation is similar to that of an individual purchasing where he has a charge account. A slightly higher price for an article where the payment can be deferred to the future never looms up quite as large as when payment is to be made in cash. A full realization of the burden is not appreciated until the bill must actually be paid.

The possibility of America experiencing any material competition as a result of European activities in the near future does not appear as very likely. Thus, while a decline in our imports from Europe is undoubtedly to be expected, there are, as yet, no indications that the tendency will be other than gradual, even though exchange rates drop considerably lower.

1,500,000,000 Miles of Evidence

Statisticians calculate that Maxwell cars the world over traveled 1,500,000,000 miles last year. What a gigantic test of gears, bearings, axles, crankshafts, and the 3,000 other pieces of steel in a Maxwell car!

Had these metals shown a single chronic weakness their makers would have suffered a far-reaching penalty.

Instead these 1,500,000,000 test miles—equal to 57,000 times around the equator—put a great premium on the Maxwell.

So great that it is becoming more and more difficult each day to get a Maxwell.

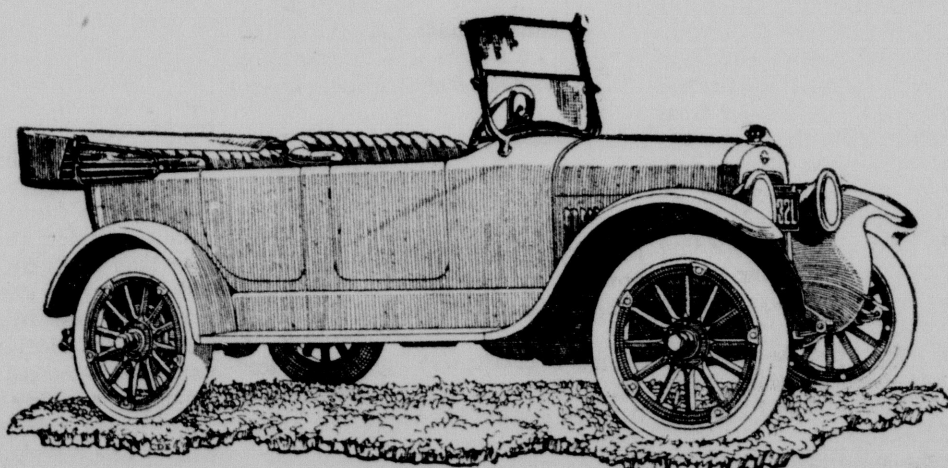

To fill this ever-growing and friendly demand for Maxwell, 100,000 are being built this year, bringing the total of Maxwells now in use on the road to 400,000. The 100,000 will fall far short.

Possibly 40,000 persons will have to purchase a second choice car.

To be sure of your first choice see the Post-War Maxwell without delay.

MATERIAL SHIPPED TO REPAIR BRIDGE

HOLTZCLAW BRIDGE DAMAGED BY RECENT FLOODS WILL BE PUT IN CONDITION.

(Rockdale Reporter.)

County Commissioner O. K. Phillips and County Engineer Mitchell went out and inspected the Holtzclaw bridge over San Gabriel River on the Rockdale-Tracy road Monday, it having been reported in bad condition. They found that the bridge was, indeed, in bad shape, and dangerous for heavy traffic. It seems the numerous overflows and swift currents of the past year had undermined the west bank which caved in one day last week the weight of the dirt thus moved being thrown against the two west piers and forcing them out of alignment.

Mr. Mitchell gave the bridge careful examination and stated that it would be necessary to close it to heavy traffic.

The necessary equipment for the repair of the structure was ordered by phone and has already been shipped out of Dallas, and Mr. Mitchell will personally superintend the work of repairs as soon as the materials arrive. Mr. Phillips says no time be lost in putting the bridge back in good condition. In fact, he hopes to have the work under way by the time this is being read.

HOLTZCLAW BRIDGE DAMAGED
BY RECENT FLOODS WILL BE PUT IN CONDITION.

(Rockdale Reporter.)

County Commissioner O. K. Phillips and County Engineer Mitchell went out and inspected the Holtzclaw bridge over San Gabriel River on the Rockdale-Tracy road Monday, it having been reported in bad condition. They found that the bridge was, indeed, in bad shape, and dangerous for heavy traffic. It seems the numerous overflows and swift currents of the past year had undermined the west bank which caved in one day last week the weight of the dirt thus moved being thrown against the two west piers and forcing them out of alignment.

Mr. Mitchell gave the bridge careful examination and stated that it would be necessary to close it to heavy traffic.

The necessary equipment for the repair of the structure was ordered by phone and has already been shipped out of Dallas, and Mr. Mitchell will personally superintend the work of repairs as soon as the materials arrive. Mr. Phillips says no time be lost in putting the bridge back in good condition. In fact, he hopes to have the work under way by the time this is being read.

TURKEY AND CONSTANTINOPE

The reassembling of the European leaders in London brings to mind the decision that Turkey is to be permitted to remain Europe. The newspapers of Constantinople are overjoyed,
as well they may be, over the decision.

The crimes of the Turks rank with
the worst that Germany has done.
The continued massacre of the Armenians and the present determined
policy of the Turkish government to rule or ruin, shows that nothing better than the past can be expected in the future. France is credited with saving Constantinople for the Turk,
being afraid that a strong naval power might acquire it, but that left there
the Turks would be dependent upon
the financial commission of the treaty
on which France is strongly represented.

Viscount Bryce declares the "Turk
have resumed their old arrogance and insolence. They admit no defeat,
and so far from showing any remorse
for their crimes they indicate every intention of continuing their policy of plunder and slaughter." The former ambassador to the United States
thinks that the trouble over the Turkish situation arises from three mistakes. The first was the lenient
terms to the Turks, despite their massacres and inhumanity, the failure to require them to withdraw from the
regions out of which Christian refugees had been driven and the failure
of the Turks to disband their forces,
which has allowed them to remain
strong and continue their barbarity.

Mr. Morgenthau, the former ambassador to Turkey from the United States says, "the British and French
politicians for selfish purposes are arranging to let the Turk remain in Constantinople" and if they do "the Greeks, Syrians, Armenians and Jews
cannot call their souls their own." He says it a farce for the allied nations,
that "professed to be fighting for

justice and self-determination of
small peoples" to take the hand of the Turk "while it is still streaming with blood of murdered Armenians and
say, "We will put you back again."
If the Turks are not punished, according to Mr. Morgenthau "within three years the Russians will massacre two or three million Jews, for they will argue that public opinion did not protect against the massacre of a million by the Turk."

Crawford Price, an authority on Near Eastern questions, writing in the London Times, accuses Lloyd George
of settling the Turkish question by reverting to the old diplomacy of bartering away portions of country and
declares "we are back in the old rut,
floundering in the old welter of sordid ambition that died in what we
fondly imagined was Armageddon,
but if these methods prevail Armageddon has yet to be fought." The jealousy of European powers again
protect the Turk, just as it has protected them in their massacres: hundreds of years. Mr. Price says we have now to face the fact "that not content with jettisoning Wilsonism
we have thrown overboard the last
vestiges of political decency."

It seems that the world is thus again to witness the saving of the ramshackle Turkish empire, with its bloodstained government, because the civilized nations of Europe cannot agree upon a disposition of the capital of the empire. Constantinople
commands such a tragic advantage
that each nation dislikes to see another in control, and apparently
each is willing for the Turk to continue in its control until another day,
when perhaps, it will be able to steal
it.

Since the United States refuses the
mandate for Constantinople the only other reasonable solution would be its
control by an international board,
representing the entire League of Nations. The report that this plan has
been abandoned because no small nation will undertake its administration
is another sign that the Italians,
French and British are not too full of
trust towards each other.

THE COST OF STRIKES

In Great Britain an average of 5,000,000 working days every month
were sacrificed by strikes and lockouts. Taking $5 a day as an average wage this means a loss of $600,000
every working day, or $180,000,000.

In the United States it is estimated
that labor lost in wages at least $723,- 478,300 during 1919 because of strikes
and labor troubles. The loss in production is even greater than that.

With such a showing it should not
be hard for laboring men and employers to realize that arbitration of industrial disputes is the best course
after all. Why fight when justice and reason can be had instead of the arbitrament of might?

Yet, every time there is any proposals along the lines of establishing by law a tribunal to settle wage and

hour disputes we find labor's representatives kicking strenuously. When
the railroad bill framers planned to
put an anti-strike provision and arrange for a board to settle grievances
labor leaders threatened everything;
even, Plumb hinted at revolution!

There is no more justification for
force in the settlement of labor disputes than it is when force was applied to get a path through Belgium.
The analogy is not a harsh one—Germany and France were at war, and Germany ruthlessly trampled on Belgium's rights to get at her enemy;
similarly, when capital and labor go
to war they do not hesitate to walk
all over the public to hit each other.
As a matter of fact, the sympathetic
strike has for its basis that if the public is bled enough it will make capital give in!

There should be court of industry
established throughout the nation, and
it should have the power to regulate industrial strife. Duelling in the industrial world is as foolish as when
men faced each other with pistols
across forty paces. Let's be sensible,
and settle all disputes by reason, justice, and right.

UTILIZING WASTE PRODUCTS

It is said that the big packers only
lose the squeal when they butcher
hogs. Everything else, from the hair
to the bone is made use of in some way for the many varied demands of industry.

It hasn't been many years since the use of cottonseed for oil was put into
practical application, and now the sale
of cottonseed reaches into gigantic proportions. It was an illustration of how waste products might be utilized.

Another step in this direction is
seen in the recent announcement of the Bureau of Plant Industry that a new food oil is being derived from grape seed. Scientists say it is edible and nutritious, and may rival olive and seed oils for salad dressings.

This is good news for the vineyard
owners of California and other sections, even if the demand for oil is hardly as strong as that for the wine.
But, oil from grape seed is only another example of how modern science
is preventing waste where hitherto
it prevailed.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE EXPLAINED

Many readers fail to understand
why the American dollar is worth so much more than other money in foreign exchange. To explain the matter it is not necessary to know all about high finance. Take the United States. We have one-third of the gold supply of the world, a metallic reserve of three billion dollars behind
our four billion dollars in paper currency, our national debt of about 25
billion dollars. In contrast, Germany, whose mark is badly off, has practically no gold, being on a relative paper basis, owes 50 billion dollars with a national wealth of only 80 billion dollars, faces heavy war indemnities payments and a budget of 8 billion dollars yearly. Is there any mystery attached to the fact that American money is worth more in exchange for German money? The same reasons, in more or less degree,
apply to all European nations.

NEW MODEL PATHE NOW ON DISPLAY AT GREEN STORE

The Actuelle, the new model Pathe
phonograph which is hailed as the most revolutionary development since
the entrance of the phonograph itself,
is now on display at the music room
of C. N. Green & Brothers store.

One of these machines was received the first of the week and is now being exhibited to interested spectators. The phonograph features a new device which does away with the sound box, tone arm and horn.

The feature of the reproduction is that the tone is sipped by the sapphire and directly out to the hearer.

C. N. Green recently attended a meeting of dealers in Dallas where the
received shipment for one of these instruments.

INTEREST IN LOCAL FIELDS
DURING WEEK.

Spudding in of new wells, construction of pipe lines and a skyward
movement of leases in Milam county
top the list in oil activities scheduled
for the next few weeks.

Within the past week a large number of operators have come into the local fields. Progress on the wells
now drilling has been more than satisfactory. From all over the county where drilling is now in progress reports come in and tell of good development work.

In the Rockdale field seven companies are now established and drilling on an extensive scale is about to begin. The wild cat well of the American Underwriters' Association
of New York at Tanglewood in Bur-
leson county just across the Milam
county line is down 1000 feet and is showing good. This location was made several weeks ago when the officials of the company visited Cameron and went out to their holdings.
In the event this well comes in, which
is highly probable now that showings
are good, a valuable extension will have been made to the territory in which Milam county is embraced.

Drilling will begin in a few days
on the holdings of L. J. Derrick of Temple and associates in the southeastern extension of the Tracy field.
This company has three thousand
acres in that section and will put the
shallow wells on pump as fast as they are brought in.

The well of the Wisconsin Association of which A. J. Branstad is the head, is drilling at more than a thousand feet in the Tracy field and is nearing the 1200 foot strata which proved
such a sensation three years ago
when the big gasser was brought in
on the Gilliland tract.

The Pettibone and Brooks well of
the Cameron Oil & Refining Company of which William Henderson is
the head, are progressing nicely.
These wells are located west of the city on well defined structures and officials feel sure the wells will come
in good producers.

The deep test of Bartlett, Culber-
son and Meyers near Thorndale is passing through the Edwards Lime
Rock at over 2500 feet and on showings made is expected in some time
soon as a good producer.

The Calvert Oil and Development
Company has made locations at Mays-field and have arranged to spud in soon.

The Tracy-Rockdale Company has purchased machinery to begin drilling near the town of Tracy on its holdings.

P. E. Johnson and associates of Tulsa last week bought the Eckhart
holdings at Tracy and have shipped machinery to begin drilling.

The Avo Oil Company which was organized at Rockdale last week and will drill near Tracy.

Mrs. Knipp has lived in Cameron for eight years. Her friends were numbered by those who knew her—
for to know her was to love her. Her life was like one beautiful flower
full blown—a monument to her loved ones and friends. A good woman has been taken from our midst. We should not mourn or grieve, for she
now dwells in one of the "many man-

TURKEY AND CONSTANTINOPLE

The reassembling of the European
leaders in London brings to mind the decision that Turkey is to be permitted to remain Europe. The newspapers of Constantinople are overjoyed,
as well they may be, over the decision.

The crimes of the Turks rank with
the worst that Germany has done.
The continued massacre of the Armenians and the present determined
policy of the Turkish government to
rule or ruin, shows that nothing better than the past can be expected in
the future. France is credited with
saving Constantinople for the Turk,
being afraid that a strong naval power might acquire it, but that left there
the Turks would be dependent upon
the financial commission of the treaty
on which France is strongly represented.

Viscount Bryce declares the "Turk
have resumed their old arrogance and insolence. They admit no defeat,
and so far from showing any remorse
for their crimes they indicate every
intention of continuing their policy of plunder and slaughter." The former ambassador to the United States
thinks that the trouble over the Turkish situation arises from three mistakes. The first was the lenient
terms to the Turks, despite their mas-
sacres and inhumanity, the failure to
require them to withdraw from the
regions out of which Christian refugees had been driven and the failure
of the Turks to disband their forces,
which has allowed them to remain
strong and continue their barbarity.

Mr. Morgenthau, the former ambassador in Turkey from the United States says, "the British and French
politicians for selfish purposes are
arranging to let the Turk remain in
cannot call their souls their own." He
says it a farce for the allied nations,
that "professed to be fighting for

small peoples" to take the hand of the
blood of murdered Armenians and
say, "We will put you back again."
If the Turks are not punished, according to Mr. Morgenthau "within three years the Russians will massacre two or three million Jews, for they will
argue that public opinion did not protest against the massacre of a million by the Turk."

Crawford Price, an authority on
London Times, accuses Lloyd George
of settling the Turkish question by
reverting to the old diplomacy of bar-
tering away portions of country and
declares "we are back in the old rut,
floundering in the old welter of sor-
did ambition that died in what we
fondly imagined was Armageddon,
but if these methods prevail Armageddon has yet to be fought." The jealousy of European powers again
protect the Turk, just as it has protected them in their massacres.
Hundreds of years. Mr. Price says we have now to face the fact "that not content with jettisoning Wilsonism
we have thrown overboard the last
vestiges of political decency."

It seems that the world is thus
again to witness the saving of the
ramshackle Turkish empire, with its
bloodstained government, because the civilized nations of Europe cannot
agree upon a disposition of the capital of the empire. Constantinople
commands such a tragic advantage
that each nation dislikes to see an-
other in control, and apparently
each is willing for the Turk to continue in its control until another day,
when perhaps, it will be able to steal
it.

Since the United States refuses the
mandate for Constantinople the only
other reasonable solution would be its
control by an international board,
representing the entire League of Nations. The report that this plan has
been abandoned because no small nation will undertake its administration
is another sign that the Italians,

THE COST OF STRIKES

In Great Britain an average of
3,000,000 working days every month
were sacrificed by strikes and lockouts. Taking $5 a day as an average
wage this means a loss of $600,000
every working day, or $180,000,000.

In the United States it is estimated
that labor lost in wages at least $723-
478,300 during 1919 because of strikes
and labor troubles. The loss in production is even greater than that.

With such a showing it should not
be hard for laboring men and employers to realize that arbitration of industrial disputes is the best course
after all. Why fight when justice and reason can be had instead of the arbitrament of might?

Yet, every time there is any proposal along the lines of establishing

hour disputes we find labor's repre-
the railroad bill framers planned to
put an anti-strike provision and arrange for a board to settle grievances
labor leaders threatened everything;
even, Plumb hinted at revolution!

There is no more justification for
force in the settlement of labor disputes than it is when force was applied to get a path through Belgium.
The analogy is not a harsh one—Germany and France were at war, an-
Germany ruthlessly trampled on Bel-
gium's rights to get at her enemy;
similarly, when capital and labor go
to war they do not hesitate to walk
all over the public to hit each other.
As a matter of fact, the sympathetic
public is bled enough it will make
capital give in!

There should be court of industry
established throughout the nation, and
dustrial world is as foolish as when
men faced each other with pistols
across forty paces. Let's be sensible,
and settle all disputes by reason, justice, and right.

It is said that the big packers only
lose the squeal when they butcher
hogs. Everything else from the hair
to the bone is made use of in some way for the many varied demands of
industry.

It hasn't been many years since the
use of cottonseed for oil was put into
practical application, and now the sale
of cottonseed reaches into gigantic
proportions. It was an illustration
of how waste products might be utilized.

Another step in this direction is
seen in the recent announcement of
the Bureau of Plant Industry that a
new food oil is being derived from grape seed. Scientists say it is edible and nutritious, and may rival olive and seed oils for salad and dressings.

This is good news for the vineyard
owners of California and other sections, even if the demand for oil is
hardly as strong as that for the wine.
But, oil from grape seed is only an-
other example of how modern science
is preventing waste where hitherto
it prevailed.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE EXPLAINED

Many readers fail to understand
why the American dollar is worth so
much more than other money in foreign exchange. To explain the matter it is not necessary to know all
about high finance. Take the United States. We have one-third of the gold
supply of the world, a metallic reserve of three billion dollars behind
our four billion dollars in paper currency, our national debt of about 25
billion dollars. In contrast, Germany, whose mark is badly off, has
practically no gold, being on a relative paper basis, owes 50 billion dollars with a national wealth of only 80 billion dollars, faces heavy war indemnity payments and a budget of 8
billion dollars yearly. Is there any mystery attached to the fact that American money is worth more in exchange for German money? The
same reasons, in more or less degree,
apply to all European nations.

NEW MODEL PATHE NOW ON DISPLAY AT GREEN STORE

The Actuelle, the new model Pathe
phonograph which is hailed as the
most revolutionary development since
the entrance of the phonograph itself,
is now on display at the music room
of C. N. Green & Brothers store.

One of these machines was received the first of the week and is now being exhibited to interested spectators. The phonograph features a new device which does away with the
sound box, tone arm and horn.

The feature of the reproduction is
that the tone is sipped by the sapphire and directly out to the hearer.
C. N. Green recently attended a meeting of dealers in Dallas where the
received shipment for one of these
instruments.

DURING WEEK.

Spudding in of new wells, construction of pipe lines and a skyward
movement of leases in Milam county
top the list in oil activities scheduled
for the next few weeks.

Within the past week a large number of operators have come into the local fields. Progress on the wells
now drilling has been more than satisfactory. From all over the county
where drilling is now in progress re-
opment work.

In the Rockdale field seven companies are now established and drilling on an extensive scale is about to begin. The wild cat well of the American Underwriters' Association
of New York at Tanglewood in Bur-
leson county just across the Milam
county line is down 1000 feet and is
showing good. This location was
made several weeks ago when the officials of the company visited Cameron and went out to their holdings.
In the event this well comes in, which
are good, a valuable extension will
have been made to the territory in
which Milam county is embraced.

Drilling will begin in a few days
on the holdings of L. J. Derrick of Temple and associates in the southeastern extension of the Tracy field.
This company has three thousand
shallow wells on pump as fast as they
are brought in.

The well of the Wisconsin Association of which A. J. Branstad is the head, is drilling at more than a thou-
ing the 1200 foot strata which proved
such a sensation three years ago
when the big gasser was brought in
on the Gilliland tract.

the Cameron Oil & Refining Company of which William Henderson is
the head, are progressing nicely.
These wells are located west of the
city on well defined structures and
officials feel sure the wells will come
in good producers.

The deep test of Bartlett, Culber-
son and Meyers near Thorndale is
passing through the Edwards Lime
Rock at over 2500 feet and on showings made is expected in some time
soon as a good producer.

The Calvert Oil and Development
Company has made locations at Mays-
field and have arranged to spud in
soon.

The Tracy-Rockdale Company has
purchased machinery to begin drilling near the town of Tracy on its
holdings.

P. E. Johnson and associates of Tulsa last week bought the Eckhart
holdings at Tracy and have shipped

The Avo Oil Company which was organized at Rockdale last week and

DEATH OF MRS. F. V. KNIPP

Mrs. Freida Vogelsang Knipp was born at Welcome, Austin county, Texas, January 18, 1877, moving to Milam county in 1883. On December 11, 1900 she was married to Mr. Ruvived by her husband, son, August Pufus Knipp, who is a member of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Vogel-sang of New Braunfels, Texas, Messrs. Ernest and Willis Vogelsang of Cameron, Mr. Moody Vogelsang of San Antonio, Miss Ida Vogelsang and Mrs. Pete Bergum of Cameron. She was reared by a careful mother, and educated by a tutor in her home, thus bringing out and developing the lovely traits of her womanhood.

Mrs. Knipp had lived in Cameron
for eight years. Her friends were numbered by those who knew her—
for to know her was to love her. Her
life was like one beautiful flower
full blown—a monument to her loved ones and friends. A good woman
has been taken from our midst. We should not mourn or grieve, for she
now dwells in one of the "many man-

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Every child in Cameron who will be seven and not over eighteen by September 1, 1920, should be enrolled in the school census. It means much to the Cameron schools to have an accurate census, for a large part of the school funds is thus obtained. We must not miss a single child. The school needs the money. Especially should parents report those children who are seven by Sept. 1 and will enter school next September for the first time.

Those who have moved to Cameron since the last census (school) was taken a year ago should see that their children are enrolled.

Let the Commercial Club and Ladies' organizations of the city assist. Mr. W. J. Walker will take the census and he desires the co-operation of everyone.

W. G. Sheekles of Rockdale, was in the city Monday and while here called at The Herald office. Mr. Sheekles reports prosperity and much activity in his section of the county.

Jesse Brock and wife of Eloise, are in Cameron this week visiting in the home of their father, John Brock.

Dr. James Watson, Cameron dentist, will be out of the city for more than a week while attending the State Dental Association and the special lecture courses to be conducted during the convention. Dr. Watson will leave Cameron for Dallas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McAdams, and little son, Ronald Adams, are at Pilot Point where they were summoned a few days ago on account of the death of the step-father of Mr. Adams, Mr. Jones. Mrs. McAdams and son went several days in advance of Mr. McAdams' departure for that city. Mr. McAdams is manager of the Milam County Lumber Company.

Announcements have been received by many of Mrs. J. P. David, (nee Miss Williamai Ledbetter) friends of the birth of a wee daughter, little Miss Jeanette.

Mrs. Irwin was a native of Milam county but had lived at Nolanville practically all of her life, having been raised by her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Short, following the death of her mother when she was two years of age.

She was married to Van E. Irwin on March 2, 1919, just one year previous to her death.

While his condition was considered serious from the time pneumonia developed some improvement was shown early Sunday but later in the day the illness became more manifest and death came a few hours later.

Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Garrison who knew and loved little James Harve Garrison, deeply sympathize with them in the loss of their loved one.

TRACY-MAYSFIELD OFFICIAL TO MAKE HOME IN CAMERON

S. M. Messer, vice-president of the Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company and formerly a resident of Bartlett, has moved to Cameron with his family and will make this his future home in the future.

Mr. Messer will be in personal touch with the developments of the company in this field and already has begun work looking toward the early spudding in of the deep test at Maysfield and the bringing in of additional shallow wells at Tracy.

Mr. Messer is an experienced oil man and says this is sure to prove the next big field.

Two rigs are in Cameron for the work of the company in developing its Maysfield and Tracy holdings. Like other oil men who have come to Milam county, Mr. Messer declares the shallow field at Tracy will be one of the best producing fields in the State and the holdings of the company there will insure big production and big dividends for the stockholders.

STEWARDS MEET

The board of stewards were invited by Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers to meet at their home Tuesday night. It was their monthly meeting and there was a good attendance.

During the business session delicious fruit punch was served, which was very refreshing. After the business session several readings were given by Eloise, the charming little daughter of the home. Their new Edison also furnished delightful pastime.

At the close of the evening Mrs. Rogers served cake and cream, then delighted all present with a look over her handsome new home. Other than stewards, Rev. F. O. Favre of Buckholts, and Mesdames Ira Key and Jeff Kemp were the honored ones.

Mrs. Stanley Bowles and little daughter are with her grandmother, Mrs. Billy Ross, for a month's visit. Mr. Bowles was here last week.

stronger now. If she is good enough to knit the socks, cook without sugar, sell Liberty Bonds and War Stamps, minister to the sick and dying on the battle fields, and give birth to and rear the knightliest sons that ever fought for freedom, then she is good enough to vote. I voted and used my influence as Speaker of the House of Representatives, to ratify the National Woman Suffrage Amendment, and am proud of it.

My district had voted for it by a substantial majority. Two years ago while a candidate for the Legislature, I told my people I was for the equal rights of the women, and expected to support every measure looking to their relief, and still they returned me without opposition. I did not break faith with them. Regardless of the outcome of this contest, I propose to all in my power to see to it that so long as a black man votes that a white woman have the same right—that so long as the illiterate foreigner, who is not even a citizen of this country, casts his ballot, that he pure, patriotic American woman be given an equal opportunity to kill his vote with hers.

Prohibition and Woman Suffrage have both already demonstrated that they mean for better things and higher standards, and with me there is to be no turning back.

If there be those either in or out of the party, who seek to destroy it, then I accept the gauge of battle. I expect to defend the party of our fathers against its enemies and defamers.

This is a wonderful State. "Texas occupies a place unique in the history of American States. Since her discovery, six different governments have claimed her allegiance. Six different flags have in turn waved over her in token of sovereignty. Her breezes have fanned the 'Lilies of France,' the royal banner of Spain, and the tri-color of republican Mexico. Her sunlight has kissed the lone star emblem of her own independent sovereignty, and the stars and stripes of the American Union. For four eventful years, amid the smoke of battle, she upheld the stars and bars of the Southern Confederacy."

It is a worthy ambition to want to be Governor of a State with such a history. If defeat comes to me in this contest, I expect to still live within her borders, here to rear my children and make them good citizens. If success should be written upon my banner I here now, in the presence of those who know and love me best, pledge my sacred word that no act or deed of mine shall ever bring disgrace upon you or the fair name of TEXAS.

Rev. B. B. Crops That Compete With Cotton

Consider for a minute some figures:

American cotton, the South's royal staple, brought $13,000,000,000 in the past eleven years.

American hay in the same period brought $11,000,000,000.

Wheat brought more than $10,800,000,000 and corn produced a total of $26,000,000,000, besides the value of fodder.

Even oats brought half as much as cotton.

The growers of corn and wheat and oats and hay have become wealthy.

The growers of cotton have received a scant living for the most priceless of crops. WHY?

Because they have been beggared, driven down to poverty, by the one-crop, speculative system under which they have operated.

But the South will no longer have to plead for profitable price. By the system advocated by the American Cotton Association the price will be regulated by the legitimate laws of demand and not by speculation.

And with cotton Southern cotton farmer will produce other profitable crops—as told in an article in the Country Gentleman entitled "Crops that Compete With Cotton." Read it in the issue dated March 13th—and read the rest of the great series of which it is a part. (Five cents a copy from newstand, 52 issues for $1.00 a year from The Country Gentleman, Philadelphia, Penna.)

The cotton growers will get a fair price this year—they will have more money to put in the bank.

EWING THOMASON OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR GOVERNOR

stronger now. If she is good enough to knit the socks, cook without sugar, sell Liberty Bonds and War Stamps, minister to the sick and dying on the battle fields, and give birth to and rear the knightliest sons that ever fought for freedom, then she is good enough to vote. I voted and used my influence as Speaker of the House of Representatives, to ratify the National Woman Suffrage Amendment, and am proud of it.

My district had voted for it by a substantial majority. Two years ago while a candidate for the Legislature, I told my people I was for the equal rights of the women, and expected to support every measure looking to their relief, and still they returned me without opposition. I did not break faith with them. Regardless of the outcome of this contest, I propose to all in my power to see to it that so long as a black man votes that a white woman have the same right—till so long as the illiterate foreigner, who is not even a citizen of this country, casts his ballot, that he pure, patriotic American woman be given an equal opportunity to kill his vote with hers.

Prohibition and Woman Suffrage have both already demonstrated that they mean for better things and higher standards, and with me there is to be no turning back.

If there be those either in or out of the party, who seek to destroy it, then I accept the gauge of battle. I expect to defend the party of our fathers against its enemies and defamers.

This is a wonderful State. "Texas occupies a place unique in the history of American States. Since her discovery, six different governments have claimed her allegiance. Six different flags have in turn waved over her in token of sovereignty. Her breezes have fanned the 'Lillies of France,' the royal banner of Spain, and the tri-color of republican Mexico. Her sunlight has kissed the lone star emblem of her own independent sovereignty, and the stars and stripes of the American Union. For four eventful years, amid the smoke of battle, she upheld the stars and bars of the Southern Confederacy."

history. If defeat comes to me in this contest, I expect to still live within her borders, here to rear my children and make them good citizens. If success should be written upon my banner I here now, in the presence of those who know and love me best, pledge my sacred word that no act or deed of mine shall ever bring disgrace upon you or the fair name of TEXAS.

Blaylock, pastor of the First Baptist Church, who has been ill for the past few weeks and unable to appear for preaching services at the church, is much improved and will be able to resume services Sunday. Look Forward, Not Backward

Will you sit and worry about the "flu" and the high cost of living while other young people are taking action to prepare themselves to meet the demands of business? Training is the one thing that makes a difference between the executive and the man in overalls. We are entering a period in which business training is more necessary than ever. The next five years in this country will be the most progressive, prosperous and successful in our history. It will mean to you much or little in accordance with the manner you will be prepared to meet it. There will be no time to train the unskilled in the business office.

Uncle Sam did not send untrained soldiers to France to win the war. Neither will American business men place men and women in their offices, banks, etc., to win in this great battle for business supremacy. If you want to work with the big men in business you must get a business education.

Remain as you are and you will occupy the same relative position ten years from now. Do not permit yourself to work under an unnecessary handicap all the rest of your life. Spend a few months with the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, securing the training that means an opportunity to make a success of life. Do not permit any obstacle to stand in your way. Fit yourself for a life worth while. We have trained thirty thousand young people for business; we know how. We have helped others solve the same problems that now confront you, so won't you let us help you? Look forward, enroll NOW in America's largest Commercial Training School for a thorough and practical course of Bookkeeping, Business Training, Short-hand, Telegraphy, Penmanship, Cotton Marketing and Sampling, and Business Finance. FARMER'S INCOME SUBJECT TO TAX

Gains for 1919 Must Be Figured Under U. S. Law—Returns Due March 15.

LAND SALE PROFITS TAXABLE.

Necessary Farm Expenses May Be Deducted—Special Form for Farm Income—Cash or Accrual Basis for Computing.

A farmer, shopkeeper, or tradesman must figure up his net income for 1919; and if the farm or business income plus his other income was sufficient to require an income tax return a complete return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue by March 15.

A farmer should ascertain the gross income of his farm by computing all gains derived from the sale or exchange of his products, whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold.

Farm Expenses.

From his gross income a farmer is allowed to charge off all of his necessary expenses in the conduct of the farm during the year. These include costs of planting, cultivating, harvesting and marketing. In addition to these costs he may deduct money spent for ordinary farm tools of short life bought during the year, such as shovels, rakes, etc. Also, the cost of feed purchased for his live stock may be treated as an expense in so far as this cost represents actual outlay, but the value of his own products fed to animals is not a deductible item.

Other farm expenses allowable are the cost of minor repairs on buildings (but not the dwelling house), on fences, wagons and farm machinery; also bills paid for horseshoeing, stock powders, rock salt, services of veterinary, insurance (except on dwelling house), gasoline for operating power and sundry other expenses which were paid for in cash.

As to hired help, all the productive labor is a deductible expense; but the wages of household servants, or help hired to improve the farm, as in tree planting, ditching, etc., cannot be claimed against earnings. A farmer is not allowed to claim a salary for himself or members of his family who work on the farm.

Wear and Tear.

Purchase of farm machinery, wagons, work animals, etc., also the cost of construction or extension of buildings, silos, fencing, etc., should be considered additional investments in the farm and are not proper deductions against income.

A reasonable allowance may be claimed for wear and tear on farm buildings (except the farmhouse), fences, machinery, work animals, wagons, tanks, windmills and other farm equipment which is used in the conduct of the farm.

As to autos and tractors, the cost of these is not an expense, although the cost of their upkeep is an allowable deduction, if the machines are used exclusively for farm purposes and not for pleasure. Also, in such cases, a deduction for wear and tear is allowed.

Farm Losses.

The loss of a growing crop is not a proper deduction from income, inasmuch as the value of the crop had not been taken into gross income. The loss of a building or of machinery through storm, lightning, flood, etc., is an allowable deduction, but care should be used to ascertain the correct loss sustained, as restricted by income tax regulations.

No deduction is allowed in the case of loss of animals raised on the farm, but a loss is deductible from gross income if the animals had been purchased for draft or breeding purposes.

Shrinkage in weight or value of farm products held for favorable market prices cannot be deducted as a loss, for the reason that when such products are sold the shrinkage will be reflected in the selling price.

Sale of Farms and Land.

The value of agricultural lands has been jumping during the past few years, and during 1919 many owners sold out part or all of their lands at big profits. All such gains constitute income and must be taken into the net income for the year.

Any person who sold part of a farm or ranch, or part of a parcel of land, must also show any gains realized by the sale.

The method of figuring gains and losses on such transactions is prescribed in the Income Tax regulations, copies of which may be secured from Internal Revenue Collectors.

Forms for Returns.

The Internal Revenue Bureau has issued an improved Form 1040F for the use of farmers. This form, together with Form 1040A or 1040, will give the farmer explicit information as to how to properly figure his net income for 1919.

There are two methods of figuring a farmer's income tax return this year. He may make his return on the basis of the difference between the money and goods received for his products and the cash paid out for actual allowable farm expenses within the year. Or he may make his return on the accrual basis, which means computing the receipts and expenses that pertain to the taxable year, excluding income earned and expenses incurred in previous or succeeding years.

It will mean to you much or little in accordance with the manner you will be prepared to meet it. There will be no time to train the unskilled in the business office.

Business is moving ahead by leaps and bounds. Every paper is carrying many advertisements for commercial training help. A country wide investigation of Employment conditions, to get information as to the help in greatest demand, shows the following results: 1338 of 2445 advertisements for help specified a business training, and 584 of the remaining 1107 advertisements were for positions that office assistants grow into. No other profession can claim one-fifth as great a demand. In fact, this proves that there is a greater demand for business training than all other trades and professions combined. Are you passing up a business training and its wonderful opportunities to become a day laborer, house maid, department store clerk, telephone operator, factory hand, etc.? Uncle Sam did not send untrained soldiers to France to win the war. Neither will American business men place men and women in their offices, banks, etc., to win in this great battle for business supremacy. If you want to work with the big men in business you must get a business education.

Remain as you are and you will occupy the same relative position ten years from now. Do not permit yourself to work under an unnecessary handicap all the rest of your life. Spend a few months with the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, securing the training that means an opportunity to make a success of life. Do not permit any obstacle to stand in your way. Fit yourself for a life worth while. We have trained thirty thousand young people for business; we know how. We have helped others solve the same problems that now confront you, so won't you let us help you? FARMER'S INCOME SUBJECT TO TAX

Gains for 1919 Must Be Figured Under U. S. Law—Returns Due March 15.

LAND SALE PROFITS TAXABLE.

Necessary Farm Expenses May Be Deducted—Special Form for Farm Income—Cash or Accrual Basis for Computing.

A farmer, shopkeeper, or tradesman must figure up his net income for 1919; and if the farm or business income plus his other income was sufficient to require an income tax return a complete return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue by March 15.

A farmer should ascertain the gross income of his farm by computing all gains derived from the sale or exchange of his products, whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold.

Farm Expenses.

From his gross income a farmer is allowed to charge off all of his necessary expenses in the conduct of the farm during the year. These include costs of planting, cultivating, harvesting and marketing. In addition to these costs he may deduct money spent for ordinary farm tools of short life bought during the year, such as shovels, rakes, etc. Also, the cost of feed purchased for his live stock may be treated as an expense in so far as this cost represents actual outlay, but the value of his own products fed to animals is not a deductible item.

Other farm expenses allowable are the cost of minor repairs on buildings (but not the dwelling house), on fences, wagons and farm machinery; also bills paid for horseshoeing, stock powders, rock salt, services of veterinary, insurance (except on dwelling house), gasoline for operating power and sundry other expenses which were paid for in cash.

As to hired help, all the productive labor is a deductible expense; but the wages of household servants, or help hired to improve the farm, as in tree planting, ditching, etc., cannot be claimed against earnings. A farmer is not allowed to claim a salary for himself or members of his family who work on the farm.

Wear and Tear.

Purchase of farm machinery, wagons, work animals, etc., also the cost of construction or extension of buildings, silos, fencing, etc., should be considered additional investments in the farm and are not proper deductions against income.

A reasonable allowance may be claimed for wear and tear on farm buildings (except the farmhouse), fences, machinery, work animals, wagons, tanks, windmills and other farm equipment which is used in the conduct of the farm.

As to autos and tractors, the cost of these is not an expense, although the cost of their upkeep is an allowable deduction, if the machines are used exclusively for farm purposes and not for pleasure. Also, in such cases, a deduction for wear and tear is allowed.

Farm Losses.

The loss of a growing crop is not a proper deduction from income, inasmuch as the value of the crop had not been taken into gross income. The loss of a building or of machinery through storm, lightning, flood, etc., is an allowable deduction, but care should be used to ascertain the correct loss sustained, as restricted by income tax regulations.

No deduction is allowed in the case of loss of animals raised on the farm, but a loss is deductible from gross income if the animals had been purchased for draft or breeding purposes.

Shrinkage in weight or value of farm products held for favorable market prices cannot be deducted as a loss, for the reason that when such products are sold the shrinkage will be reflected in the selling price.

Sale of Farms and Land.

The value of agricultural lands has been jumping during the past few years, and during 1919 many owners sold out part or all of their lands at big profits. All such gains constitute income and must be taken into the net income for the year.

Any person who sold part of a farm or ranch, or part of a parcel of land, must also show any gains realized by the sale.

The method of figuring gains and losses on such transactions is prescribed in the Income Tax regulations, copies of which may be secured from Internal Revenue Collectors.

Forms for Returns.

The Internal Revenue Bureau has issued an improved Form 1040F for the use of farmers. This form, together with Form 1040A or 1040, will give the farmer explicit information as to how to properly figure his net income for 1919.

There are two methods of figuring a farmer's income tax return this year. He may make his return on the basis of the difference between the money and goods received for his products and the cash paid out for actual allowable farm expenses within the year. Or he may make his return on the accrual basis, which means computing the receipts and expenses that pertain to the taxable year, excluding income earned and expenses incurred in previous or succeeding years.

MEXICAN LABOR MAY BE PLACED ON TEXAS FARMS

VOTE WILL BE TAKEN TO TEST OUT SENTIMENT FOR IM-PORTING LABORERS

Because an estimated one-fifth of Texas farms that were in cultivation in 1919 will lie idle in 1920 for lack of labor and avowing that Mexican labor is the only available and quick means of relief the Texas Chamber of Commerce will ask its 800 members whether or not they favor Mexican labor in Texas for agricultural purposes.

A ballot will be sent out tomorrow to the membership asking for a vote on the following questions: "Shall the present Federal immigration laws be so amended as to permit the importation into the United States of Mexican labor to meet satisfactorily the demands of Texas? Shall your Texas Chamber of Commerce undertake this activity as the representative of the membership and business interests of Texas?"

This referendum is made returnable March 5.

"The present restrictions in the law permitting immigration from Mexico to Texas are so stringent as practically to cut off entirely the bringing in of Mexican labor even in the face of the great demand and attractive wages offered in Texas," reads a memorandum to the membership by James Z. George, vice-president and general manager of the Chamber, at the direction of the executive committee.

"Under the crying need of agricultural production," continues this memorandum, "your Texas Chamber of Commerce took up in May 1919 the matter of suspending certain of the most stringent clauses in the present immigration law and on the above showing made to the Secretary of Labor at Washington, he did issue an order suspending certain of these clauses, including head tax and literacy test, on labor for agricultural purposes. This suspension, however, was operative only until December 31, 1919.

"Realizing that the expiration of this order would be most harmful to Texas production, the matter was again taken up with Secretary of Labor during January by a Texas delegation and he has extended the order of May 1919 to cover the present period of pending legislation on the subject.

"A continuation of these executive orders cannot be hoped for. Permanent relief can be obtained only thru Federal Immigration legislation, which is now under consideration. Your Texas Chamber of Commerce has been studying this situation and wishes to put before Congress the needs for Mexican immigration, which will protect our American ideals yet permit the greatest cultural state to make full use of Mexican labor. To act intelligently and properly, we are asking you your attitude on this subject."

"Net to the house was a fine big vegetable garden in which lettuce, cabbage, beets, onions, tomatoes, bush-beans, corn and pole beans were growing in the heartiest, happiest way.

"Oh!" said Patience, "Here is where the rainbow seemed to end."

"Just then a boy and girl ran out of a side door of the house into the garden, each carried a big tin pan. They, too, were singing. Seeing Patience looking at their vegetables, they ran to the fence and said,

"Good evening! How do you like our garden?"

"Fine!" spoke up Mr. Byandby. "But we're looking for the end of the rainbow. We thought it stopped here; but it's gone on. I had a visit from the Queen of the Rainbow, and she told me that where the rainbow ends I'll find a pot of gold marked with my own name. We thought it ended here."

"Oh!" said the girl, "the Queen of the Rainbow! How I wish I'd seen her! How was she dressed?"

"Ho!" said the boy. "You can't ever find the end of the rainbow! There's a story about it in our reader at school; but say, I'll show you our pot of gold if you want me to. Wait just amine!"

"He ran in and brought out a hand grenade, one of those that Uncle Sam is giving to his children who have bought War Savings Stamps. The boy tossed it in the low rays of the sun like gold. It jingled as the boy bounced it up and down.

"See!" he said, "it's our savings bank. And look here!"

"He took from under his arm two books, each with a baby bond in it, touched with gold by the sunlight. "Some pot of gold," he sighed.

"Just then Patience cried out so loudly that everybody jumped.

"Look! The Rainbow is fading away! It is almost gone; but back there, where we came from just over our place is the other end of it, still bright. Oh, let's go back!"

"Mr. Byandby started to run. He stumbled. He bumped his head against something hard. He sat up in his chair.

"Come look at the rainbow, father," called Patience's sweet voice. "They say where the rainbow ends there's a pot of gold. And look here. Here are some copies of the United States School Garden Army Manual. Our teacher got them for us from the United States School Garden Army."

"Yes," said Mr. Byandby. "I've been dreaming about that. I think I'm going to make this a first class farm next year, with corn and potatoes and such. There's money in it, and you shall have the best land for your garden."

"Well, that's fine!" said Patience, "but we must begin to get ready right away."

"And they did," said the Garden Lady. "Mr. Byandby's place is now one of the finest in the country, and he has changed its name to Rainbow's End."

PREPARING TO SINK THREE TESTS IN FALLS COUNTY

Marlin, Texas, March 1.—Financial arrangements have been completed for sinking three test wells in the Stranger vicinity, twelve miles east of Marlin, by the Balto-Tex. Company says Page Collier, official of the company, former local attorney, who is here from Wichita Falls in connection with the beginning of operations which will be launched as soon as the derrick and rig can be placed on the ground. The materials have been in Marlin for several months, awaiting return of dry weather.

A derrick is being constructed also in the Westphalia community of Falls County, about twenty miles west of Marlin while several tests are expected in the near future.

Operations heretofore in territory tributary to this city have been confined to the Deer Creek section a few miles west of Marlin just across the Brazos River where several test wells were sunk, a slight showing of oil at shallow depths being encountered in each. However, it was not considered pay sand. The greatest depth reported reached was 1,843 feet and negotiations are now under way for still deeper tests on leases there, which are expected to materialize soon.

BANDIT BELIEVED HANGED AS SLAYER OF AMERICAN

U. S. INCOME TAX EXEMPTS NOBODY

Every Person Who Had Income in 1919 Must Determine Own Liability.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Surest Way Is to Follow Form 1040A.

Free Advice in Doubtful Cases.
Severe Penalties in Law.

Nobody is exempt from Income Tax. An obligation is laid directly on the shoulders of each citizen and resident to consider his own case and to get his return in on time if one is due.

With each return showing a tax due a payment must accompany the return in the full amount of the tax or at least one-quarter of the tax.

All returns for 1919 must be filed on or before March 15.

Must Show True Figures.

In figuring up his earnings for income tax purposes a person must take into consideration all items of taxable income, and each item itself must be accurate in amount. Guesses and estimates must be avoided, for the return is made under oath.

Everybody who had an income during 1919 must now determine whether his or her net income was sufficient in amount to require an Income Tax return. The best way to find out is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income; and if a return is due, it tells how to prepare and file it.

One of the important points to keep in mind is that a person's net income is found by a computation prescribed in the law, and that each item of income from every source must be considered, unless specifically exempted.

Another thing to remember is that the personal exemption allowed taxpayers by law has no relation whatever to the requirement to file return. This exemption is not to be considered until a person has figured out his net income and determined whether it was sufficient to require him to file a return. Then, if a return must be filed, he should read carefully the instructions for claiming exemption, and complete his return.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office. Many banks and trust companies are also furnishing similar service during banking hours.

Heavy Penalties in Law.

For failing to make a return on time the penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 and an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, if any. For making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both; and, in addition, 50 per cent of the tax. There are other penalties for failing to pay tax when due and for understatement of the tax through negligence.

Many Sources of Income.

Aside from what one may earn by his services, there are many other sources of income. If he sold any property during 1919 he must figure out the gain realized. If he rented buildings, land, apartments or rooms such rents must be considered taxable, and he may claim deductions for necessary expenses incidental to rents.

Bank interest is a common source of income and is taxable whether withdrawn or not. Any amount of interest credited to a depositor is income to the depositor.

Interest on mortgages and notes is taxable; also bond interest received from corporations.

A taxpayer who cashed his insurance during 1919 must report as income any excess received over the total of premiums paid.

Members of partnerships or personal service corporations or beneficiaries of an estate or trust must report their shares of income distributable to them whether or not actually withdrawn.

Dividends of domestic corporations must be reported. Many other forms of income are taxable, unless specifically exempted.

INCOME TAX IS DUE MARCH 15

Penalties for Delay and Failure to Make Returns—Early Compliance Urged.

All income tax returns covering the year 1919 must be filed by Monday, March 15. Each taxable return must be accompanied by check or money order for the full amount or at least one-quarter of the amount of tax due.

Cash payments are accepted only at the collector's main office; if sent by mail, they are at the sender's risk.

Residents of Texas should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, Alexander S. Walker, Collector of Internal Revenue, Austin, Tex.

Those who must file returns but have not done so are warned that the revenue law imposes heavy penalties for failure to get returns in on time or to make payments on time.

Early filing and early payments are urged, in order to relieve the internal revenue offices as much as possible of an overload on the final day, March 15.

MID-CONTINENT OIL UP ANOTHER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS

Midcontinent crude oil was again advanced 25c a barrel yesterday by the Sinclair Company, bringing the price to $3.50. This is the second increase in less than a week, the companies having followed the lead of the Prairie Oil & Gas Company in raising the price last Friday. The advance yesterday was met by the Prairie from Independence, Kan. At Fort Worth it is reported all of the companies had followed suit. The raise had not been met by any companies at Wichita Falls up to last night. Officials of the Texas Company and the Gulf Refining Company at Houston said their respective companies had not increased the price.

The Grayburg Oil Company posted a 25c boost in the price of Somerset crude at San Antonio yesterday.

Local oil men expect all companies to observe the new posting, as it is said there are no pipe lines sufficiently over-supplied to justify an effort to hold the price down. Some operators are standing by a prediction made last year that increases would continue to be made until at least $4 a barrel is reached before many months. The present price of $3.50 is $1.25 more than was being paid a little more than a year ago.

HOUSEWORK IS BURDEN

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Cameron women. Read what Mrs. Martha Moore, E. 2nd Street, Cameron, says: "For a great many years Doan's Kidney Pills have been my standard medicine for kidney complaint. I have taken Doan's when my back and sides have been so lame and sore that I couldn't do my housework. When my kidneys were irregular, I would get dizzy spells when stooping that just blinded me. That condition made me nervous. I felt out of sorts. When I had attacks of that kind, I took Doan's Kidney Pills and about one box of them strengthened my kidneys and restored by to good health. I very gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone."

EXHIBITION GAME AT COLLEGE STATION

TOWN

College Station, March 3.—W. L. Priver, acting for Texas A. & M. College Athletic Council and working with the Bryan Commercial Club, has arranged to put on at College Station on Monday, March 29th, an exhibition game between the Cardinals of the St. Louis National League Club and the Athletics of the Philadelphia American League Club.

The manager of the St. Louis is Branch Rickey and the Philadelphia Club is Connie Mack, both well known to Texas baseball followers. The clubs to be seen in action this date will be the first string team players of each club and not the second string players which is often the composition of teams sent to small towns.

The Athletic Council has donated the use of its grounds and stands and the Bryan Commercial Club is pushing the sale of the tickets. Stores in Bryan will close after 2 p. m. that date to give an opportunity to every one in the city to witness the game.

Sport writers are picking both of these teams to finish high up in the league this year and many followers of the game will take advantage of this opportunity to see these teams in action before placing their bets on the outcome of the season.

ON THE FIELD

Not long ago, as we all know,
When baseball time began,
We all were proud, and shouted loud,
"We'll do all that we can."
Oh! It will be a joyful time,
When we get our skillful nine,
Those who play so deft and fine,
On the field.

With vim and zest, we'll do our best
For all that's right, we'll always fight
We'll never, never fall.
And when the catcher gives the sign,
Oh how each batsman will whine,
And Oh how each of us will shine
On the field.

Although it seems that other teams,
Must surely have us beat,
We'll stand the test among the best
We will with all compete,
And when the catcher gives the sign,
And one of our men says, "He's mine,
That's what we call a joyful time,
On the field.

While on our rounds in other towns
With voices loud and soft,
We will proclaim dear Cam-Hi's
name
We'll carry it aloft.
I've thought it o'er, and I apine,
That it will be a happy time
When we get our most skilled nine,
On the field.

Mr. Wilkerson plant his and now they will plant cotton. It is a very nice plan for two men that live close together to help each other do their work. It looks like they get on faster.

Hoyte had its box supper Saturday night and it was a great success.
They took in about forty-three dollars with the boxes, and had a very nice cake. They let the prettiest girl contest for Miss Minnie May Foster was the one that they thought was the right girl to have the cake, so all her friends at the Cameron school will get a taste of that cake. I know she can't help taking it to show what she can do out at Hoyte. There were several young men from Cameron
there and all had a very good time.

Miss Lola Avant, who teaches the eighth grade, had to stay over to help attend to the supper, went back to Cameron Saturday morning with Mrs. J. H. Ashenbeck and son, Theo, who were business visitors in Cameron.

Mr. Jim Steward and Mr. White of Liberty took a nice drove of cattle to Cameron Friday. They had something over a hundred in the bunch.
Mrs. Lettie Shelton walked back to Oakdale Saturday morning after staying to assist with the box supper.

Mrs. Sid Hause had tidings from Mrs. W. H. Lyon this past week and she is getting on nicely with her school in Monteola.

Mr. Sid Hause had an announcement card telling him he had a great-niece, her name is Ruth Porter of Branchville.

Mr. Homan Thompson had the bad luck of having his horse and mule getting out and taking to the road to Cameron. He went to hunt them but had not gotten back when last

The Actuelle

Announcing the arrival of the New Pathe Actuelle
---the most revolutionary development since the entrance of the Phonograph itself.

Exit Sound Box, Tone Arm and Horn---

What is going to happen to the sound box, the horn, and the tone arm? We don't need them. Let us see what office they now perform. The tone is sipped out of the channels of the record by the sapphire. It carries the vibrations through the sound box into the tone arm—that peculiar metal device—through this it travels on into the tone chamber, through the horn, and then outward to you.

The problem of the phonograph maker is to take out of the way the tone obstacles which affect the reproduction in a lesser degree, though a similar way to what has just been described.

The tone box is in the way. The tone arm is in the way. The tone chamber and the horn are in the way. They stand as obstacles. The record holds the reproduction of the living musician.
How to get it out with the least change of timbre and tonal quality?

-- The Actuelle, by a sweep of the pen, throws into the discard all the obstacles. The tone is sipped by the sapphire and directly out again to you. That is the entire process.

BASEBALL TEAM

A meeting of the baseball boys was held on February 24th for the purpose of organizing a High School Baseball Team. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Cameron, who acted as chairman, and after making a brief talk relative to Cam-Hi's past and present baseball teams, announced that nominations were in order for Captain. Denson and Wiley were nominated, after which, the nominations were closed. When the vote was taken, Denson was elected by a small majority.

Denson made a short talk relative to the prospects for the coming season, and he was not building air castles when he said that Cam-Hi had a good chance for winning every game she plays this season, and will be almost a "leaguer" instead of a common High School.

Denson, Parma, Knipp and Wiley, who were stars last year are going to shine again this year, but these old stars will need some little help to win victory for old Cam-Hi, Willis, Carlton, McCall, McDonald, and Guess are offering their services. These men are perhaps a little rusty, but a little practice will shine them up, so just watch them shine for Cam-Hi.

ANNUAL PROGRESSES

Last Thursday, Mr. Beach, the local photographer, came to the campus and took the pictures of the various clubs in the school for the Annual. The students of Cam-Hi have progressed considerably in the sense of the propriety of things, as any one observing the picture taking could have observed, for no one seemed to find any humor in the remarks of well meaning but thoughtless persons concerning the "Birdie," and only one exposure was necessary for the taking of the pictures.

The Annual Board has been putting in some good work of late, and the prospects are good for one of the best annuals put out by the students of Cam-Hi.

It has been unanimously agreed to dedicate the "Cam-Hi" to Dr. Epperson, as an expression of the appreciation we feel of the interest he has taken in the school work.

C. L. C.

Last Thursday, the C. L. C. held its weekly meeting. The meeting was opened with the reading of the minutes by Nona Hubert. Miss Sallie Coleman then read the first Chapter of "Leah." Then came a debate, Resolved, That the Onion is Stronger Than a Mule. The ones representing the affirmative were Alta Klawansky and Helen Horstmann; the negative, Lucile Ingram and Mildred Favors. The affirmative won.

After the debate, Alice Garrison read Chapter two in "Leah."

The meeting then adjourned to the campus where the club picture for the Annual was taken.

GIRLS' CLUB

The Girls' Club met in regular session last Thursday. A very interesting program was carried out, and plans were made for a sandwich sale on Saturday. Before the program began Mr. Beach took the picture of the Club for the Annual.

SANDWICH SALE

On Saturday, Feb. 28, four girls, Verna Roberts, Agnes Henderson, Frances Hefley and Velda Walker sold cand and sandwiches for the Girls Club. The proceeds, $16.58, is to be devoted to the Y. W. C. A.

EXHIBITION GAME AT COLLEGE STATION

TOWN

College Station, March 3.—W. L. Driver, acting for Texas A. & M. College Athletic Council and working with the Bryan Commercial Club, has arranged to put on at College Station on Monday, March 29th, an exhibition game between the Cardinals of the St. Louis National League Club and the Athletics of the Philadelphia American League Club.

The manager of the St. Louis is Branch Rickey and the Philadelphia Club is Connie Mack, both well known to Texas baseball followers. The clubs to be seen in action this date will be the first string team players of each club and not the second string players which is often the composition of teams sent to small towns.

The Athletic Council has donated the use of its grounds and stands and the Bryan Commercial Club is pushing the sale of the tickets. Stores in Bryan will close after 2 p. m. that date to give an opportunity to every one in the city to witness the game.

Sport writers are picking both of these teams to finish high up in the league this year and many followers of the game will take advantage of this opportunity to see these teams in action before placing their bets on the outcome of the season.

ON THE FIELD

Not long ago, as we all know,
When baseball time began,
We all were proud, and shouted loud,
"We'll do all that we can.
Oh! It will be a joyful time,
When we get our skillful nine,
Those who play so deft and fine,
On the field.

With vim and zest, we'll do our best
To win each game of ball,
For all that's right, we'll always fight

We'll never, never fall.
And when the catcher gives the sign,
Oh how each batsman will whine,
And Oh how each of us will shine
On the field.

Although it seems that other teams,
Must surely have us beat,
We'll stand the test among the best
We will with all compete,
And when the catcher gives the sign,
And one of our men says, "He's mine,
That's what we call a joyful time,
On the field.

While on our rounds in other towns
With voices loud and soft,
We will proclaim dear Cam-Hi's name
We'll carry it aloft.
I've thought it o'er, and I apine,
That it will be a happy time
When we get our most skilled nine,
On the field.

Thou preparest an exam for me in the presence of my classmates, and thou maketh a fool of me till my wrath runneth over. But surely goodness and mercy shall touch the heart of Mr. Cameron, or I shall dwell in Cam-Hi forever.

BANK ROBBERS KILL NIGHT WATCHMAN AND STEAL $25,000

SENSATIONAL LOOTING OF PLANO
BANK AT EARLY HOUR
SATURDAY MORNING

Plano, Collin Co., Texas, Feb. 28.—G. W. Rye, night watchman, is dead and Liberty bonds totalling at least $25,000 and probably far more are missing as the result of one of the boldest and most coolly executed bank robberies in the history of North Texas. Two men, who evidently spent hours at work in the book vault of the Plano National Bank, containing also the boxes of depositors for safe-keeping of their valuables, made their escape at 5 o'clock this morning in an automobile, after fatally shooting Rye.

Plano was in the grip of a tense excitement all day today, with crowds ever present around the closed doors of the bank. Inside the entire bank force was busy at the task of sorting out the thousands of papers which the robbers had piled in a great heap on the vault floor. Efforts to estimate the loss, officials of the bank declared, would be fruitless because the bank had no record of the amount of Liberty bonds their depositors had placed in their individual boxes. Indeed, they said the exact loss may never be known.

Collin County officers and Bankers' Association detectives spent the day at work on the case without any tangible clue. A broken lock on a back window of the bank and a hole eighteen inches square, dug through the twenty-one-inch brick wall of the book vault, bore evidence as to how the robbers got at the bank's papers. On the vault floor the contents of the 200 or more individual boxes were about and piled in a huge heap, and how carefully the robbers worked was shown by the fact that practically every bond envelope had been emptied, as well as other papers inspected, and the tens of thousands of dollars worth of bonds that had been in the vault, less than $700 worth of coupon bonds had been overlooked and there were only a very few registered bonds left behind.

Survived by Family.

And far down the main street of Plano—in the last house at the right—a little cottage which had been G. W. Rye's home sheltered this afternoon only a widowed wife and mother, a son lately returned from the armed service of the Nation, and a little girl of 10 years. Weeping silently, the mother told how they had been in Plano only about twenty months, having come there to seek a livelihood after they had lost their all in the drouth-stricken district around San Saba in 1917 and 1918. Mr. Rye is survived also by a married daughter.

Apparently the robbers had spent several hours in the bank, not only digging into the book vault, but also, as it was discovered in searching the papers this afternoon, making a futile effort to get into the money vault in front of the book vault. There the men, working with two crowbars and the skill of mechanics, and dug a hole into the masonry far back against the manganese steel of the money vault, and then along and under that vault in an effort to find a weak spot where entry into the vault could be made. No evidence of drills or explosives were found, however.

Whether Rye exchanged shots with the men or whether they shot him from ambush is not known, for his pistol, found in his hands when citizens reached him a few minutes after he was shot, had five empty cartridges, and he had been shot from the front, the bullet passing through his upper abdomen and causing death within twenty minutes. At first it was thought that Rye had seen the robbers and fired upon them, but later, from the statements of the only two women who heard the shots, seemed to indicate that he had been wounded at the first shot and that then, a few minutes later, he had discharged his own pistol as a signal for help after the robbers had made their escape.

Mrs. J. J. Vavra, wife of Plano's baker, who resides in the second house back of the Plano National Bank, had just seen her husband off to his work when she heard the first shot. She said she then heard moans and the voice sounded like her husband's, causing her to think he had been shot. She seized her own pistol and rushed from the house, seeing two men go west from the bank across the railroad tracks. She tried to fire at them she said, but her pistol snapped or was empty. The fleeing men ran behind a lumber yard shed and made their escape in an automobile toward the south.

Mrs. Vavra ran around to the baker shop and found her husband there. They called on John Waits, at the Plano Restaurant, for assistance and the three, with Henry Boggess, returned to the rear of the bank, where they found Rye with a pistol wound through his stomach.

"Boys, they've shot me—I'm dying," was Rye's greeting to them when they reached him. Waits said, and he was unable to give intelligible answers to their questions as to how it had happened. When asked how many men there were, he only shook his head as if to say he did not know. Dr. W. D. Ellis was summoned, and Rye was carried into the Vavra home, where he died within twenty minutes. Realizing that the end was near, Rye kept groaning, "My poor wife, my poor children," Vavra said.

Heard Four Shots

Mrs. Anna Vavra, mother of J. J. Vavra, said she did not hear the first shot, which her daughter had heard, but after Mrs. J. J. Vavra rushed to the bakery, she heard four shots. She thought they were fired by Rye in an effort to summon aid.

The wounded man, who was 52 years old, was found prostrate in the street, just beyond the sidewalk and at the north end of the bank property. At the rear of the bank is a high board fence, with a cistern inside, and the robbers apparently had climbed that fence in making their way into the bank. In view of Mrs. Anna Vavra's statement about the shots, some thought that Rye had never seen his assailants, but had been shot from ambush. One bullet hole through the board fence was found.

William Schimelpfenig, bookkeeper of the Plano National Bank, said he was at work in the front of the bank until 10 o'clock last night.

"I wonder if those men got in while I was there," he said in commenting upon the amount of time it must have taken the robbers to dig

By Audrey Criswell

Buckholts, Texas, March 1.—Rev. Mr. Favre gave a splendid talk before the student body of this school at the regular Monday morning chapel. His theme was, "Human Clock."

On account of the cold weather there was no service at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Mr. Favre delivered a sermon to a rather small audience on Sunday evening.

Miss Nellie McQuinn was at her home near Cameron during the week end.

Mrs. Walter Blansett of Yarrellton, is here visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Hill.

Messrs. Ben Mauldin and Tom Allen were Cameron visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Patillo were here several days to see his relatives. They left Friday afternoon for Oakmulgee, Okla., where they will reside. Mr. Patillo is well known here where he spent his boyhood. He was recently married in Galveston to Miss Violet Mitchell. His friends will be interested to know that he is making a splendid record as manager of a lumber company in Oakmulgee.

Mr. W. W. Chambers and County Attorney Roy Baskin of Cameron, were here Saturday on legal business.

Mrs. Dora Allen, of Holland, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Tom Harris.

A hard shower of only about fifteen minutes duration fell here Saturday afternoon. This seems to have slightly improved the roads. The work of the farmers will not be hindered by the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sevcik and daughter, Fanny, were in Cameron Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Corley, Jr., are ill with the flu. Mr. Corley's place of business is closed at present. His trade was handled Saturday by Messrs. Jim Petruy and W. E. Coley.

Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron, was in town Saturday.

Mr. Ross Dabney is now able to be at his post of duty at the Santa Fe station after an illness of several days.

Mr. Graham of Gause, was here looking after his bee interests at this place.

Mrs. Sam Slone was in town last week and marketed forty-seven dozen eggs. On the Slone farm about seven miles north of here, they have about four hundred chickens and the forty-seven dozen eggs were collected in about a week's time.

out so much masonry and to make such a thorough search of the papers in the deposit vault.

Sent $90,000 to Dallas

Officials of the bank said that only a short time ago they sent to Dallas for safe keeping more than $90,000 of Liberty bonds of their customers, being all bonds delivered to the bank for safe keeping, otherwise the loss might have been far greater. They said they did not know how many bonds were in the individual safe deposit boxes as their owners kept them there, but they thought not much more than $25,000 worth. However, in view of the total sales of nearly $500,000 worth of bonds in Plano in the Liberty bond campaigns, some citizens were inclined to place the estimate far higher, saying that the Plano National was the depository for at least half of the bonds held, or probably $200,000 worth, so that, with $90,000 lately sent to Dallas, they believed it possible that the loss may run as high as $100,000.

A few months ago the bank at Murphy, four miles east of Plano, also in Collin County, was robbed in a manner very similar to that used by the robbers here last night. The bank also lost a large amount of Liberty bonds.

The last time the Plano National Bank was robbed was in 1893, when some $20,000 in money was procured by the robbers.

BROWN COUNTY WELL DOUBLES PRODUCTION

Brownwood, Texas, March 1.—A further example of the way in which the Brownwood shallow field is still holding up is shown again this week by a well on the Boone Brothers lease near town. The well was cleaned and the production jumped to sixteen barrels, which before was less than eight barrels. A chemical process was used in this well as an experiment and was very successful. It has been found that where the shallow wells have had a good cleaning their production is doubled. The character of the oil or formation makes it necessary that these wells be cleaned every few weeks to give the best results.

SENSATIONAL LOOTING OF PLANO
NO BANK AT EARLY HOUR
SATURDAY MORNING

Plano, Collin Co., Texas, Feb. 28.—G. W. Rye, night watchman, is dead and Liberty bonds totalling at least $25,000 and probably far more are missing as the result of one of the boldest and most coolly executed bank robberies in the history of North Texas. Two men, who evidently spent hours at work in the book vault of the Plano National Bank, containing also the boxes of depositors for safe-keeping of their valuables, made their escape at 5 o'clock this morning in an automobile, after fatally shooting Rye.

Plano was in the grip of a tense excitement all day today, with crowds ever present around the closed doors of the bank. Inside the entire bank force was busy at the task of sorting out the thousands of papers which the robbers had piled in a great heap on the vault floor. Efforts to estimate the loss, officials of the bank declared, would be fruitless because the bank had no record of the amount of Liberty bonds their depositors had placed in their individual boxes. Indeed, they said the exact loss may never be known.

Collin County officers and Bankers' Association detectives spent the day at work on the case without any tangible clue. A broken lock on a back window of the bank and a hole eighteen inches square, dug through the twenty-one-inch brick wall of the book vault, bore evidence as to how the robbers got at the bank's papers. On the vault floor the contents of the 200 or more individual boxes were about and piled in a huge heap, and how carefully the robbers worked was shown by the fact that practically every bond envelope had been emptied, as well as other papers inspected, and the tens of thousands of dollars worth of bonds that had been in the vault, less than $700 worth of coupon bonds had been overlooked and there were only a very few registered bonds left behind.

Survived by Family.

And far down the main street of Plano—in the last house at the right—a little cottage which had been G. W. Rye's home sheltered this afternoon only a widowed wife and mother, a son lately returned from the armed service of the Nation, and a little girl of 10 years. Weeping silently, the mother told how they had been in Plano only about twenty months, having come there to seek a livelihood after they had lost their all in the drouth-stricken district around San Saba in 1917 and 1918. Mr. Rye is survived also by a married daughter.

Apparently the robbers had spent several hours in the bank, not only digging into the book vault, but also, as it was discovered in searching the papers this afternoon, making a futile effort to get into the money vault in front of the book vault. There the men, working with two crowbars and the skill of mechanics, and dug a hole into the masonry far back against the manganese steel of the money vault, and then along and under that vault in an effort to find a weak spot where entry into the vault could be made. No evidence of drills or explosives were found, however.

At about 5 o'clock this morning, having ended their search and loaded themselves with the stolen bonds, the robbers had evidently started to depart, and just as they left the bank at the rear, Night Watchman Rye, on his hourly vigil, passed their way.

Whether Rye exchanged shots with the men or whether they shot him from ambush is not known, for his pistol, found in his hands when citizens reached him a few minutes after he was shot, had five empty cartridges, and he had been shot from the front, the bullet passing through his upper abdomen and causing death within twenty minutes. At first it was thought that Rye had seen the robbers and fired upon them, but later, from the statements of the only two women who heard the shots, seemed to indicate that he had been wounded at the first shot and that then, a few minutes later, he had discharged his own pistol as a signal for help after the robbers had made their escape.

Mrs. J. J. Vavra, wife of Plano's baker, who resides in the second house back of the Plano National Bank, had just seen her husband off to his work when she heard the first shot. She said she then heard moans and the voice sounded like her husband's, causing her to think he had been shot. She seized her own pistol and rushed from the house, seeing two men go west from the bank across the railroad tracks. She tried to fire at them she said, but her pistol snapped or was empty. The fleeing men ran behind a lumber yard shed and made their escape in an automobile toward the south.

Mrs. Vavra ran around to the baker shop and found her husband there. They called on John Waits, at the Plano Restaurant, for assistance and the three, with Henry Boggs, returned to the rear of the bank, where they found Rye with a pistol wound through his stomach.

"Boys, they've shot me—I'm dying," was Rye's greeting to them when they reached him, Waits said, and he was unable to give intelligible answers to their questions as to how it had happened. When asked how many men there were, he only shook his head as if to say he did not know. Dr. W. D. Ellis was summoned, and Rye was carried into the Vavra home, where he died within twenty minutes. Realizing that the end was near, Rye kept groaning, "My poor wife, my poor children," Vavra said.

Heard Four Shots

Mrs. Anna Vavra, mother of J. J. Vavra, said she did not hear the first shot, which her daughter had heard, but after Mrs. J. J. Vavra rushed to the bakery, she heard four shots. She thought they were fired by Rye in an effort to summon aid.

The wounded man, who was 52 years old, was found prostrate in the street, just beyond the sidewalk and at the north end of the bank property. At the rear of the bank is a high board fence, with a cistern inside, and the robbers apparently had climbed that fence in making their way into the bank. In view of Mrs. Anna Vavra's statement about the shots, some thought that Rye had never seen his assailants but had been shot from ambush. One bullet hole through the board fence was found.

William Schimelpfenig, bookkeeper of the Plano National Bank, said he was at work in the front of the bank until 10 o'clock last night.

"I wonder if those men got in while I was there," he said in commenting upon the amount of time it must have taken the robbers to dig

By Audrey Criswell

Buckholts, Texas, March 1.—Rev. Mr. Favre gave a splendid talk before the student body of this school at the regular Monday morning chapel. His theme was, "Human Clock."

On account of the cold weather there was no service at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Mr. Favre delivered a sermon to a rather small audience on Sunday evening.

Miss Nellie McQuinn was at her home near Cameron during the week end.

Mrs. Walter Blansett of Yarrington, is here visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Hill.

Messrs. Ben Mauldin and Tom Allen were Cameron visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Patillo were here several days to see his relatives. They left Friday afternoon for Oakmulgee, Okla., where they will reside. Mr. Patillo is well known here where he spent his boyhood. He was recently married in Galveston to Miss Violet Mitchell. His friends will be interested to know that he is making a splendid record as manager of a lumber company in Oakmulgee.

Mr. W. W. Chambers and County Attorney Roy Baskin of Cameron, were here Saturday on legal business.

Mrs. Dora Allen, of Holland, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Tom Harris.

A hard shower of only about fifteen minutes duration fell here Saturday afternoon. This seems to have slightly improved the roads. The work of the farmers will not be hindered by the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sevcik and daughter, Fanny, were in Cameron Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Corley, Jr., are ill with the flu. Mr. Corley's place of business is closed at present. His trade was handled Saturday by Messrs. Jim Petruy and W. E. Coley.

Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron, was in town Saturday.

Mr. Ross Dabney is now able to be at his post of duty at the Santa Fe station after an illness of several days.

Mr. Graham of Gause, was here looking after his bee interests at this place.

Mrs. Sam Slone was in town last week and marketed forty-seven dozen eggs. On the Slone farm about seven miles north of here, they have about four hundred chickens and the forty-seven dozen eggs were collected in about a week's time.

out so much masonry and to make such a thorough search of the papers in the deposit vault.

Officials of the bank said that only a short time ago they sent to Dallas for safe keeping more than $90,000 of Liberty bonds of their customers, being all bonds delivered to the bank for safe keeping, otherwise the loss might have been far greater. They said they did not know how many bonds were in the individual safe deposit boxes as their owners kept them there, but they thought not much more than $25,000 worth. However, in view of the total sales of nearly $500,000 worth of bonds in Plano in the Liberty bond campaigns, some citizens were inclined to place the estimate far higher, saying that the Plano National was the depository for at least half of the bonds held, or probably $200,000 worth, so that, with $90,000 lately sent to Dallas, they believed it possible that the loss may run as high as $100,000.

A few months ago the bank at Murphy, four miles east of Plano, also in Collin County, was robbed in a manner very similar to that used by the robbers here last night. The bank also lost a large amount of Liberty bonds.

The last time the Plano National Bank was robbed was in 1893, when some $20,000 in money was procured by the robbers.

INTEREST GROWING IN ORGANIZATION BASEBALL TEAM

FANS BELIEVE CAMERON CAN PUT WINNING CLUB IN
FIELD THIS YEAR

During the past two weeks there has been considerable agitation in Cameron looking to the organization of a baseball club. The movement should be encouraged by the citizens of the city and inasmuch as spring is here little time can be spared in which to whip the organization into line and getting the talent on the field for preliminary training for opening the season.

With the return of normal conditions and the ending of the world war which interfered with baseball there is really no occasion for delay in organizing. Many young men with talent for the national game who were away during the war are now at home and the supply of talent is plentiful.

Cameron has in the past supported winning clubs and with baseball coming back stronger than ever it is safe to assume that a club of the old strength can be put back in the field for games during the coming season.

Scores of Texas towns have organized and many of them have announced their schedules. For a while there was some agitation for the organization of a Central Texas league with Cameron one of the towns in the circuit. It now appears that this project is impracticable in as much as the time is too short in which to perfect such an organization. But a number of towns in Central Texas have placed independent clubs in the field and there will be plenty of good games available for the season.

It is expected that a meeting will be called within the next few days for the purpose of organizing.

It is especially advantageous to any town to have a good live baseball team. Baseball is clean sport and a game in which every American is interested because distinctly an American game.

One of the problems which Cameron will face is the site for a park but it is understood that at least two

THE CARE OF A CAR SHOULD BE A HABIT

"The care of an automobile is really no care at all if it is done in the right way," says E. A. Flinn, Manager Daugherty Motor Co., local dealer in Chevrolet passenger and commercial cars.

"Motor car trouble usually results from putting off adjustments that should be regularly attended to. In most cases the cause can be traced to the carelessness of the owner and could easily have been prevented.

"Proper care begins with the purchase. A care should be chosen whose weight is so nicely balanced that there is no undue strain on any vital part. The materials should be light but strong. Springs should have ample play to protect all mechanical units from the shock of the road.

"Above all it is important that the motor has ample power to move any load that may be put in the body and to take it wherever necessary.

"Such a car as this is easy to take care of because hard use does not affect it. But even so it should have regular and intelligent attention from those who depend upon its service.

"Just as a horseback rider runs his eye and hand over his animal before he mounts, so the automobile driver should inspect his machine. A glance under the hood with the motor running, attention to any sound that is not in tune, a measurement of gas, water and oil, and a test of wiring and even tires, should all become a matter of habit.

A baseball team will attract people to the city and it is good from a business standpoint as well as pleasure.

Let the citizens and interested fans get together and organize a team, and place it on a business basis to insure a successful season. The time is at hand and no time should be lost.

Let's Get Acquainted

"Get better acquainted with your neighbor—you might like him!" That's a pretty good motto for a community like ours, isn't it? Town folks should get better acquainted with country folks; the merchants and the bankers should get to know the farmers—and how they are farming. Speaking for this bank, we'd like to get acquainted personally with every farmer hereabouts—he might like us enough to deposit money with us; we might like him enough to lend him some. Anyway, we could swap ideas—and perhaps add his name to the rapidly growing list of subscribers for

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Sometimes banks get acquainted with farmers by giving good advice, or urging good roads, or organizing calf clubs among the boys. INTEREST GROWING IN ORGANIZATION BASEBALL TEAM

PUT WINNING CLUB IN
FIELD THIS YEAR

During the past two weeks there has been considerable agitation in Cameron looking to the organization of a baseball club. The movement should be encouraged by the citizens of the city and inasmuch as spring is here little time can be spared in which to whip the organization into line and getting the talent on the field for preliminary training for opening the season.

With the return of normal conditions and the ending of the world war which interfered with baseball there is really no occasion for delay in organizing. Many young men with talent for the national game who were away during the war are now at home and the supply of talent is plentiful.

Cameron has in the past supported winning clubs and with baseball coming back stronger than ever it is safe to assume that a club of the old strength can be put back in the field for games during the coming season.

Scores of Texas towns have organized and many of them have announced their schedules. For a while there was some agitation for the organization of a Central Texas league with Cameron one of the towns in the circuit. It now appears that this project is impracticable in as much as the time is too short in which to perfect such an organization. But a number of towns in Central Texas have placed independent clubs in the field and there will be plenty of good games available for the season.

It is expected that a meeting will be called within the next few days for the purpose of organizing.

One of the problems which Cameron will face is the site for a park but it is understood that at least two

THE CARE OF A CAR SHOULD BE A HABIT

"The care of an automobile is really no care at all if it is done in the right way," says E. A. Flinn, Manager Daugherty Motor Co., local dealer in Chevrolet passenger and commercial cars.

"Motor car trouble usually results from putting off adjustments that should be regularly attended to. In most cases the cause can be traced to the carelessness of the owner and could easily have been prevented.

"Proper care begins with the purchase. A car should be chosen whose weight is so nicely balanced that there is no undue strain on any vital part. The materials should be light but strong. Springs should have ample play to protect all mechanical units from the shock of the road.

"Above all it is important that the motor has ample power to move any load that may be put in the body and to take it wherever necessary.

"Such a car as this is easy to take care of because hard use does not affect it. But even so it should have regular and intelligent attention from those who depend upon its service.

"Just as a horseback rider runs his eye and hand over his animal before he mounts, so the automobile driver should inspect his machine. A glance under the hood with the motor running, attention to any sound that is not in tune, a measurement of gas, water and oil, and a test of wiring and even tires, should all become a matter of habit.

"These are just a few high spots the careful owner takes into consideration. He always gives them his attention at the start. Making sure that they are right in the beginning soon becomes second nature.

"The practice of a rapid inspection of vital units costs nothing and saves all unnecessary annoyance and expense in the end.

A baseball team will attract people to the city and it is good from a business standpoint as well as pleasure.

Let the citizens and interested fans get together and organize a team, and place it on a business basis to insure a successful season. The time is at hand and no time should be lost.

Let's Get Acquainted

"Get better acquainted with your neighbor—you might like him!" That's a pretty good motto for a community like ours, isn't it? Town folks should get better acquainted with country folks; the merchants and the bankers should get to know the farmers—and how they are farming. Speaking for this bank, we'd like to get acquainted personally with every farmer hereabouts—he might like us enough to deposit money with us; we might like him enough to lend him some. Anyway, we could swap ideas—and perhaps add his name to the rapidly growing list of subscribers for

SAN GABRIEL GOSSIP

By Mrs. J. S. Woody

San Gabriel, Feb. 29.—We are today embraced in the chilly arms of winter. A light shower of rain accompanied our northern Saturday afternoon, but with a gale of such extent and velocity. It is not discernable and probably will not interfere with farm work, that has been extensively done the past few weeks of beautiful sunshine.

Gardens are being planted and corn planting days are at our doors.

The first signs of spring: as, the budding of trees, peeping of the grasses and blossoming of the early flowers, among which is included the much loved violets, warns us that the gentle hand of spring shall ere long banish the cold season.

And perhaps with the exit of winter the clutch of influenza slackens and our left again on stable ground.

Our community has been very much invaded by this terrible disease, resulting in numbers of serious illnesses and a few deaths. Scarcely a home in this vicinity has escaped without at least one member having been a victim, but it seems to be giving away at present.

The 22nd was observed here last week by the rural route carriers. Also many of our boys and girls who attend school elsewhere spent their holidays at home here.

Dr. Lee and wife were in our community Sunday.

Dr. Leslie Richardson spent last Saturday on Rockdale.

Miss Ruth Kirkman is convalescing from the flu.

Miss Isabelle Camp of Austin, spent past week end here, at home.

J. R. Foster, wife and son, Ernest, of Rockdale spent last Thursday in this neighborhood, guest of their daughter and sister, Mrs. J. S. Woody.

Branch Lewis of Rockdale, was circulating among our farmers, last week.

The familiar hum of an airplane was detected in its flight high above the clouds on last Friday.

Quite a streak of ill luck befell Mr. J. T. Locklin, when he lost his large barn containing his year's supply of corn, hay, cottonseed, meat and lard.

E. A. Camp and wife of Rockdale, were guests of his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Camp, last Sunday.

Miss McCulloch spent Saturday and Sunday in Cameron.

Mrs. Iris McNeil of Rockdale was a guest in the home of her sister here, Mrs. John Woody last week.

Dick Dunham of San Antonio, was called home last week by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Nettie Moseley.

Messrs. Walter Felton and Edgar Williams shipped a large bunch of cattle to Fort Worth market last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Edmondson lost their little six months' old babe last Thursday. It had been a sufferer of pneumonia. At present writing the mother is very ill with the same disease.

A very sad death was experienced in the passing of Mrs. Nettie Dunham Moseley on last Tuesday, from the effects of flu-pneumonia and meningitis.

She had been nursing sick friends near here several days before she took to her bed when neglecting her own welfare that perhaps made her attack fatal. But this was symbolic of her life—"unselfish in her ability to help others." She was 37 years of age, a member of the Christian church and will be greatly missed in our community by a large circle of friends who assembled, in a large body at the Locklin cemetery last Wednesday afternoon, where they tenderly laid to rest the remains. Rev. White of Thorndale conducted the services. We left her sleeping that sweet repose, under a mound of beautiful flowers, tributes of love and esteem of friends who extend heartfelt sympathy to the heartbroken father, two brothers and three sisters who still survive her.

Miss Anna Mae Camp of Austin, was at home for the past week end.

Henry Yeager came in last week from Austin and spent a few days with his sisters.

Miss Ora Yeager of Thrall, was at home part of last week.

D. E. Leslie Richardson was in South Texas part of the past week.

San Gabriel Junior boys and senior girls played Thorndale in basketball games at Thrall Friday. Our junior boys were victorious and Thorndale's senior girls.

Then again it is mild, well-mellowed, smooth, friendly.

BAILY IS AIDING REPUBLICANS SAYS SENATOR SHEPPARD

SAYS FORMER SENATOR ASKS
TEXAS TO REPUDIATE NA-TIONAL ADMINISTRATION

Washington, March 4.—Senator Morris Sheppard is the first Texan in the national arena to challenge the position of Joseph Weldon Bailey in his announcement for Governor in Texas. He today issued a statement arraigning Mr. Bailey for his attack upon the Democratic party. He charges that Mr. Bailey is giving aid and comfort to the common enemy, asking that Texas Democrats fire on the Democratic flag from one side while Messrs. Penrose and Lodge are firing upon it from another. Senator Sheppard's statement follows:

"Mr. Bailey calls upon the Democratic party of Texas to repudiate Woodrow Wilson and the record of the Democratic party since its return to power in 1913.

"He asks Texas, the State containing the greatest Democratic majority in the Union, to condemn the acts of the Democratic party of the Nation, the party which under Wilson's leadership may be credited with the most extensive array of constructive and beneficent legislation in the annals of the Republic.

"Today, when the Republicans are massing for the assault on the Democratic ramparts next November, he asks the Texas Democracy to show the white feather and to desert the fighting line. Mr. Bailey knows that the Democratic national convention at San Francisco will endorse the administration of Woodrow Wilson, will acclaim him as its logical leader and will base our claims for the continued confidence and support of the American people principally on the record of the Democratic party under his stainless banner.

"He is asking in effect, therefore, that Texas Democrats give aid and comfort to the common enemy, that they fire on the Democratic flag from one side while Penrose and Lodge are firing on it from the other. Unless I mistake them he will find Texas Democrats made of truer stuff than that.

Comments on Speech

"Mr. Bailey's speech at Gainesville last week is a curious admixture of misrepresentation and error. To intimate or to say that every power originally reserved to the States respectively or to the people by the Constitution as originally framed and amended over a century and a quarter ago was intended to be forever reserved regardless of conditions, that no further delegation could be made, is to betray an unfamiliarity with the nature and spirit of the Constitution little less than astounding. If that were true there would have been no need for an amending article. The States passed on national prohibition after it had been submitted to them under the method provided by the Constitution itself. They are passing on national woman suffrage in the same way.

"Mr. Bailey reflects upon the States when he charges in effect that they know not what they do when they adopt these amendments. Who knows best as to whether national prohibition or national woman suffrage constitutes an invasion of State rights? Mr. Bailey, or the representative tribunals which the States authorized to speak for them under the Constitution? Mr. Bailey used to say that representative government was essential to the perpetuity of American institutions.

Prohibition and Suffrage

"Mr. Bailey challenges the intelligence of the people of Texas when he announces a platform attacking measures so certain of permanence as national prohibition and national woman suffrage. As well call upon his followers to help him put out the light of the sun. If Cervantes could have known Mr. Bailey, Sancho Panza would have had another master.

"They are spending our money like drunken sailors, multiplying offices and officeholders," said Mr. Bailey at Gainesville while bitterly criticizing the Democratic party. And yet the Republicans have been in control of Congress since March 4, 1919, and the failure to remove the inequalities of taxation and other hardships growing out of the emergencies of war is due to them, not the Democrats.

"I have heretofore disregarded Mr. Bailey's references to myself because am indifferent to his personal opinion, and because the people of Texas are not interested in any personal controversy between him and me. But when he calls on Democratic Texas to repudiate the Democracy of the Nation it is time for all who have the good of the country and the party at heart to speak out.

"He will have his hand more than full in contending with the splendid and able Democrats who are opposing him for the gubernatorial nomination and who, though strong and big, do not claim to be stronger or bigger than their party."

Mrs. Judd Davis was hostess to the Priscilla Club last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There was a fine attendance, all members being present, except three. First in order was a business session, roll call, minutes read etc., followed by the annual election of officers. The result was: Mrs. R. D. Brown, President, Mrs. Jim Watson, Vice-President, and Mrs. Roy Baskin, Treasurer.

Mrs. Davis reception suite was attractive and comfortable with pot plants, cut white narcissus and a big open fire. The ladies gathered around this and plied needles while they discussed various subjects suitable to the occasion.

At the appointed time, and assisted by the pretty and charming little daughter, Gladys, of the home, Mrs. Davis served a delicious salad course with hot chocolate and whipped cream.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Crawford left last Friday for Dallas to hear Joseph Hoffman and to visit Mrs. Crawford's people.

RAMSEY CASE IS SET FOR TRIAL

THORNDALE NEWSPAPER MAN TO FACE TRIAL MONDAY
APRIL 12

In the case of the State of Texas vs. E. L. Ramsey, charged with the murder of Adolph Taegel, has been set for Monday, April 12, 1920, and a special venire of 150 men have been ordered to appear on that date. All witnesses and all jurors receiving notices are notified to appear and to be in attendance of court at the above mentioned date.

Miss Grace Gilon came home last Friday afternoon from Bellville where she teaches English in the High School to spend the week end with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Gillon.

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.

It is a powerful and scientific combination of sulphur and other healing agents for the relief and cure of diseases of the skin. It is especially effective in the ITCHING VARIETIES; giving instant relief from the itching and smarting sensations and by its germ-destroying properties it exterminates the microbe which is the cause of the eruption, thus curing the disease completely.

Littell's Liquid Sulphur Compound is used in all cases of Eczema, Tetter, Barber's Itch, Psoriasis, Herpes, Rash, Oak and Ivy Poisoning, also for relieving the annoyance caused by chiggers and mosquito bites.

In the treatment of ECZEMA—the most painful and obstinate of all skin diseases—it is one of the most successful remedies known.
